Having regard to Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 July 2018 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union, amending Regulations (EU) No 1296/2013, (EU) No 1301/2013, (EU) No 1303/2013, (EU) No 1304/2013, (EU) No 1309/2013, (EU) No 1316/2013, (EU) No 223/2014, (EU) No 283/2014, and Decision No 541/2014/EU and repealing Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 966/2012¹, and in particular Article 110 thereof,

- (3) In accordance with Article 26(1) of the Common Provisions Regulation (CPR) and Article 17(8) of the Erasmus+ Regulation, the German authorities have requested that a share of their national allocation under the European Social Fund Plus (ESF+) is transferred to Erasmus+. As established in Article 26(2) of CPR, the transferred resources are to be implemented for the benefit of the Member State concerned. Therefore, in order for the transferred resources to be allocated to Higher education mobility it is necessary to amend the work programme and its financing.
- (4) The changes to the work programme 2022 and the financing should cover the financial support to certain programme actions for Erasmus+ that are to be dedicated to preparing and carrying out activities in line with the European Year of Youth 2022⁷ (dissemination and communication activities, European Year of Youth National coordination, European Youth Forum, Eurodesk Brussels-link, training and cooperation activities in the field of youth, EU Youth dialogue: support to National Working Groups).
- (5) This amended work programme also reflects the expectation of a gradual resumption of demand for mobility, as well as other minor budgetary and technical changes and corrections.
- (6) Commission Implementing Decision C(2021)7862 should therefore be amended accordingly.
- (7) The measures provided for in this Decision are in accordance with the opinion of the Committee established by Article 34 of Regulation (EU) 2021/817, sport, et à l'adoption du programme de travail pour 2022⁶ adoptée le 8 novembre 2021 prévoit une contribution budgétaire de l'Union de 3 895 431 990 EUR.

- (2) Afin d'allouer les fonds supplémentaires mis à disposition dans le budget adopté pour 2022 ainsi que les montants révisés des recettes affectées internes et externes, il est nécessaire de réviser le programme de travail et son financement.

Comme le prévoit l'article 26, paragraphe 2, du RPDC, les ressources transférées doivent être mises en œuvre au profit de l'État membre concerné. Par conséquent, pour que les ressources transférées soient affectées à la mobilité dans l'enseignement supérieur, il est nécessaire de modifier le programme de travail et son financement.

The programme architecture of the period 2014-2020 and its main instruments and delivery mechanisms are largely maintained, with the exception of Sport activities that are now streamlined and follow the same structure as for Education and training and Youth chapters. The improvements and new actions are implemented without affecting the general stability of the programme in terms of structure and scope, building on existing actions and ensuring continuity with the 2021-2027 programme, while aiming to increase impact. In terms of scope, the programme continues to cover all education and training sectors i.e. school education, vocational education and training, higher education and adult learning, as well as youth and sport, but in a more streamlined manner with better focused and aligned priorities.

1.2. PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES

EU Member States take part in the Erasmus+ Programme. In accordance with Article 33(2) and (3) of the Council Decision 2013/755/EU on the association of the overseas countries and territories with the European Union², the Union has to ensure that individuals and organisations from Overseas Countries and Territories (OCTs) can take part in educational and vocational training related initiatives of the Union on the same basis as Member States.

In addition, in accordance with article 19 of the Erasmus+ Regulation, the following third countries are associated to the programme in 2022, subject to the signature of specific agreements covering the association of these third countries to the Programme:

- members of the European Free Trade Association (EFTA) which are members of the European Economic Area (EEA): Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein;
- acceding countries, candidate countries and potential candidates: Republic of North Macedonia, Republic of Turkey and Republic of Serbia.

Individuals and organisations from the OCTs are participating in the programme on an EU Member State or third country associated to the programme status, being the Member State with which they are connected.

Furthermore, in accordance with article 20 of the Regulation, entities from other third countries not associated to the programme can be eligible in Erasmus+ actions in duly justified cases and in the Union interest.

1.3. BODIES IMPLEMENTING THE PROGRAMME³

The European Commission (Directorate-General Education, Youth, Sport and Culture - EAC) is responsible for the implementation of the Erasmus+ Programme. It manages the budget and sets priorities, targets and criteria for the Programme on an on-going basis. For actions funded by the EU external action instruments, the Directorate-General for International Partnerships (DG INTPA) and the Directorate General for Neighbourhood and Enlargement Negotiations (DG NEAR) set the priorities in accordance with the EU's external policy. Furthermore, it guides and monitors the general implementation, follow-up and evaluation of the Programme at European level. The European Commission also bears overall responsibility for the supervision and coordination of the structures in charge of implementing the Programme at national level (indirect management). It also directly manages certain actions of the Programme. At European level, the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) is responsible for the implementation of certain actions of the Erasmus+ Programme (direct management).

Implementation by the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) is carried out according to the Commission Decision C(2021)951 delegating powers to the European Education and Culture Executive Agency with a view to the performance of tasks linked to the implementation of Union programmes in the field of education, audiovisual and culture, citizenship and solidarity comprising, in particular, implementation of appropriations entered in the general budget of the Union.

Some actions under Key Actions 2 and 3 in the fields of adult education, vocational education and training as well as skills and qualifications are partly or fully co-delegated to the Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion (DG EMPL). It is also foreseen to co-delegate certain actions under Key Action 3 related to multilingualism to the Directorate-General for Translation (DGT). The co-delegated actions are indicated in Part II of this Work Programme. DG EAC liaises closely on all aspects related to the international actions funded by the Directorate-General for International Partnerships (DG INTPA) and the Directorate General for Neighbourhood and Enlargement Negotiations (DG NEAR), and where relevant with the Foreign Policy Instruments Service (FPI) and the Delegations of the European Union in the third countries not associated to the programme.

The Erasmus+ Programme is mainly implemented through indirect management. The European Commission entrusts budget implementation tasks to designated National Agencies established in each Member State and third country associated to the programme, in line with Article 62 (1)(c) and Article 154 of the Financial Regulation⁴. National authorities monitor and supervise the management of the Programme at national level.

In accordance with Articles 62 (1)(c)(ii) and 156(1) of the Financial Regulation, with reference to Pillar Assessed International Organisations, the Commission may entrust them budget implementation tasks via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode.

⁴ Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 July 2018 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union and amending Regulation (EC) No 2012/2002, Regulations (EU) No 1296/2013, (EU) 1301/2013, (EU) No 1303/2013, (EU) No 1304/2013, (EU) No 1309/2013, (EU) No 1316/2013, (EU) No 223/2014, (EU) No 283/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council and Decision No 541/2014/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council and repealing Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 966/2012, OJ L 193, 30.7.2018.

2. ERASMUS+ IN 2022

2.1 POLICY FRAMEWORK

Education, training, youth and sport have a crucial role to play in helping the Union in reorienting its economic model towards more sustainability, with green and digital transitions as its transformative drivers. Rooted in the Rome Declaration of 25 March 2017⁵ where the EU leaders pledged to work towards a Union where young people receive the best education and training and can study and find jobs across the continent, the European Pillar of Social Rights⁶ that enshrines the right to quality and inclusive education, training and lifelong learning, and the new Strategic Agenda for the EU for 2019-2024 that stresses that Member States “must step up investment in people’s skills and education”, President von der Leyen committed to making the European Education Area a reality by 2025. To achieve this, the objective is to make quality and borderless learning available for all, everywhere in Europe, to change the culture of education towards lifelong learning, and to get Europe up to speed on digital skills for young people and adults alike.

Education is essential for the personal, social and professional fulfilment of the citizens. It also stands at the heart of Europe’s social market economy as the foundation for economic and social convergence. It helps strengthen people’s employability, helps building societal and personal empowerment and resilience, and helps the EU play a stronger role in a global, increasingly digital and knowledge-based world. The European Education Area⁷ will also help preventing the restrictions necessitated by the COVID-19 pandemic from becoming a structural barrier to learning, skills development and employment prospects of young people. The European Education Area – for which Erasmus+ is instrumental – aims to turn Europe into a genuine European learning space where Member States cooperate closely based on a shared vision for making Europe ready to face the digital and green transitions.

Erasmus+ is a major contributor to the achievement of the European Education Area objectives as outlined in the overall architecture. The programme will help drive systemic impact in mainstreaming innovative policies and accelerating new practices that improve the quality and relevance in the fields of education and training, youth work and youth policy throughout Europe, at national, regional and local level.

Erasmus+ also remains true to its mission for 35 years i.e. being the Union main instrument to support young people’s mobility, offering increased opportunities for high quality level learning mobility for learners and staff, enabling the pursuit of studies and learning paths in different stages of life. In this respect, the programme should be in a position to support a resumed demand for mobility in 2022, after the restrictions it suffered in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic (provided that the sanitary situation allows for it). As a flagship Union’s programme, Erasmus+ will increase investment in initiatives that support learning opportunities for all, educational equity and increase participation rates of people with fewer opportunities, through flexible and simple participation formats, more help prepare and accompany participants in their Erasmus+ learning adventure, but also through financial support for those who thought Erasmus+ is not for them.

⁶ https://ec.europa.eu/commission/priorities/deeper-and-fairer-economic-and-monetary-union/european-pillar-social-rights_en; the Pillar of Social Rights builds on previous initiatives towards a more social Europe, including the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU.

The programme will also contribute to deliver on the twin digital and green transitions through horizontal priorities as well as through dedicated actions offering fora to exchange, collaborate, mobilise expertise and develop creative approaches. Access to high quality digital learning, foster teachers’, youth leaders’ and youth workers’ capacity to use digital tools and content, or increasing investment in European online platforms for virtual cooperation and digital education are among the key actions the programme is supporting. Sustainability remains a ‘fil rouge’ for the programme implementation through increased mobility opportunities which foster the development of competences, enhance career prospects and engage participants in subject areas which are strategic for the sustainable growth of our planet.

The programme will support the initial and continuous professional development of teachers, trainers and youth workers through cooperation and mobility activities in order to enhance competences and foster their wellbeing, as well as to stimulate and pool their expertise for future policy design. A key contribution to the European Education Area is the continued support through Erasmus+ of European Universities alliances of higher education institutions to cooperate seamlessly across borders and disciplines and in different languages. In addition, ample opportunities for transnational cooperation for higher education institutions will continue to be supported, fostering the Union innovation capacity and contributing, inter alia, to progressing the work on micro-credentials, quality assurance and recognition.

Erasmus+ is instrumental in fostering the international dimension of education and training, youth and sport by promoting international cooperation and by expanding mobility opportunities beyond Europe, by funding exchanges and scholarships for joint degrees, and by fostering capacity-building. International actions financed by the EU’s external action programmes are open in the 2022 Erasmus+ annual work programme.

The European Education Area will be achieved through a cooperation framework with Member States and engagement with stakeholders, which will succeed the current strategic framework for cooperation in education and training (ET 2020). At Member State-level, the countries participating in the Erasmus+ programme continue implementing reforms of their education and training systems, in accordance with their needs, and benefiting from the policy support of the new framework.

The Digital Education Action Plan⁸ 2021-2027 is part of the Commission’s strategy to make Europe fit for the digital age with the objective to support the digital transition in Europe. It outlines a vision for improving digital education in order to meet the challenges arising from the external shocks of the COVID-19 crisis in the shorter term. It also provides a clear strategic path for the longer-term digital transformation of education and training in the digital age. The two strategic priorities of the Digital Education Action Plan: (1) developing a high performing digital education ecosystem; and (2) enhancing digital skills and competences for the digital transformation form the basis for the support of the digital dimension of Erasmus+. These include support to: basic and advanced digital skills and competences; digital readiness and capacity of institutions; digital pedagogy and expertise for teachers and youth workers; digital literacy. The Action Plan covers all formal sectors of education and training, including lifelong learning and all levels (from basic to advanced digital skills), as well as informal and non-formal learning, including the supporting of youth work for digital skills development. As part of this vision, the need to establish a more effective and efficient way to exchange on digital education at EU level, the Erasmus+ programme supports the establishment of the Digital Education Hub. The Hub’s aim is to enhance cooperation as a key element to achieve systemic impact and identify sustainable solutions, supporting education and training in the long term. The Hub creates a space for exchanges, providing guidance and support, focusing on peer-learning and networking, bringing together existing research, studies, and communities, a space for co-creation and experimentation.

In line with the Action Plan priorities, the programme will foster the development of digital skills and competences, develop accessible and high quality digital learning, foster teachers' capacity to use digital tools and content, test and promote blended learning (combination of more than one approach to the learning process, blending school site and distance learning environments; and digital and non-digital learning tools), and increase long-standing support and investment in European online platforms for virtual cooperation and digital education, such as eTwinning and the School Education Gateway - which will be merged in the European School Education Platform in 2022 - and the Electronic Platform for Adult Learning in Europe (EPALE). The programme will promote the SELFIE tools for self-reflection (SELFIE tool for whole school planning and the new SELFIE for Teachers) which assesses schools' and teachers' strengths and weaknesses in their use of technology. The programme will also promote participation of women and girls in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) fields of study, especially in engineering, ICT and advanced digital skills, through support for guidance or the development of new and forward-looking higher education curricula for engineering and ICT based on the STEAM⁹ approach. In addition, accompanying guidance and mentorship programmes will be set up, focusing on transitions to the labour market, making them more attractive for women. Such curricula will be co-designed and co-delivered with STEM employment sectors, and will integrate education for environmental sustainability, creativity, entrepreneurship and work-based learning, as well as contact with leading female role models. Complementing physical mobility under Erasmus+, the programme will offer digital learning opportunities and virtual exchanges on an unprecedented scale, also with third countries not associated to the programme.

Young people are at the heart of the European project. Commission President von der Leyen underlined their role in her State of the Union address to the European Parliament on 15 September 2021, proposing to make 2022 the European Year of Youth, “a year dedicated to empowering those who have dedicated so much to others”¹⁰. Thereby, young people will have an unprecedented chance to being involved in shaping the future of Europe, notably by fostering their participation in democratic life. The European Education Area and the EU Youth Strategy 2019-2027¹¹ set the framework for the European cooperation in the youth field, for the benefit of young people. The EU Youth Strategy encourages cooperation in core youth policy areas in order to engage, connect and empower young people. It promotes cross-sectoral approaches to address the needs of young people in various EU policy areas such as employment, but also climate change, digitalisation, health. This overarching strategy is implemented through two of the main EU programmes supporting youth: Erasmus+ and the European Solidarity Corps - both programmes aiming to support, engage, connect and empower young people even more effectively, notably through mobility and cooperation activities.

⁹ The use of multidisciplinary pedagogies (teaching of science in political, environmental, socio-economic, and cultural contexts) is a powerful vehicle for making STEM subjects and careers more attractive. This is also known as the STEAM approach to science education and embraces the creative potential of connecting STEM education with the arts, the humanities, and the social sciences.

In this respect, the EU seeks to help eliminate obstacles to youth cross-border volunteering in Europe by raising awareness, increasing the capacity to offer volunteering opportunities, reducing barriers to participation especially for disadvantaged groups and increasing the recognition of skills gained. The Council Recommendation of 20 November 2008¹² sets out the current framework for this and, upon the Council's invitation, the Commission will put forward a proposal for an update of the 2008 Recommendation to take into account developments since then.

The Resolution on a strategic framework for European cooperation in education and training towards the European Education Area and beyond (2021-2030) sets out a framework to enable cooperation with Member States and engagement with relevant stakeholders, including a reporting and analysis structure, with education targets to encourage and track reforms in education and training, in order to achieve the European Education Area by 2025.

The European Skills Agenda¹³ aims to support people to develop the skills needed to take full advantage of the opportunities provided by the green and digital transitions. The Skills Agenda covers several building blocks for which Erasmus+ will be instrumental i.e. the "Pact for Skills" will mobilise and incentivise relevant private and public stakeholders to partner up and take action for lifelong skills development; "Skills for a job" will support skills strategies to promote skills in STEM, empower people to learn and facilitate lifelong learning, skills recognition and support to mobility, as well as innovative approaches aimed to unlock investment in skills. "Skills for Life" will support adult learning across all environments for social inclusion, active citizenship and personal development beyond working life.

The Action Plan implementing the European Pillar of Social Rights¹⁴ of 4 March 2021, builds upon the above mentioned instruments to address the need to invest in skills and education to unlock new opportunities for all and considerably increase participation in learning.

The EU Work Plan for Sport¹⁵ sets out guiding objectives in this field for the period 2021 to 2024, in particular as it comes to protecting integrity and values in sport, to promoting the socio-economic and environmental dimensions of sport, and to fostering the participation in sport and health-enhancing physical activity. The rollout of this Work Plan is supported as appropriate by the sport strand of the Erasmus+ programme. In the same vein, the initiative HealthyLifestyle4All (launched in 2021) will support the EU sport policy priorities, while adding a new dimension. The initiative intends to link sport and active lifestyles with health, food and other EU policies in a holistic approach aimed at promoting well-being.

2.2 ERASMUS+ MAIN PRIORITIES IN 2022

Four overarching priorities are underpinning the Erasmus+ implementation in 2022.

Inclusive Erasmus+

The political guidelines of President von der Leyen highlighted the EU’s objectives on equality: “A prosperous and social Europe depends on us all. We need equality for all and equality in all of its senses”.

Within this context, a Commission implementing decision adopted in October 2021 outlines general measures to be implemented over the 7-year period for the Erasmus+ programme and the European Solidarity Corps¹⁶ and a strategy for inclusion and diversity¹⁷ covering all fields of the programmes has been devised to increase the qualitative impact of the programme actions and to ensure equal opportunities by reaching out more and better to people with fewer opportunities, including people of different ages and from diverse cultural, social and economic backgrounds, people with disabilities and migrants, as well as people living in remote areas, such as in the EU outermost regions¹⁸.

The programme will offer more mobility opportunities to learners in school classes, in higher education, vocational education and training, in adult education and training, young people, youth workers and sport organisations, reaching out to new and more diverse groups of learners. More diversified learning and training formats (e.g. more short-term, group mobility, virtual learning and blended activities) will offer enhanced flexibility to the needs of staff and learners who face obstacles in participation.

The programme will also support small-scale partnerships and youth participation activities to widen its accessibility for grassroots organisations, which typically work directly with people with fewer opportunities. Furthermore, simplification measures – such as the extended use of simplified grant and the reinforced use of mobility accreditation processes (Charters) - will enhance the inclusiveness and accessibility of the programme in all its fields.

Green Erasmus+

Climate and biodiversity mainstreaming

The actions supported by the programme contribute to the overall climate and biodiversity objective, as presented below, both by the prioritisation of the green transition in the cooperation activities, and by the promotion of green practices at the level of the projects throughout the programme.

Environment and climate action are key political priorities for the EU. The European Green Deal indicated that “Europe should strive for more by being the first climate-neutral continent” and “reduce emissions by at least 55% by 2030.” The European Green Deal and European climate pact recognise the key role of schools, training institutions and higher education institutions to engage with pupils, parents, and the wider community on the changes needed for a successful transition. The European Green Deal calls for activating education and training to support the transition towards a Green Europe. The Climate Coalition as a flagship initiative of the European Education Area aims to support a green transition for all. It will mobilise expertise, provide resources for networking and support creative approaches with teachers, pupils and students, it will create a strong link between bottom-up initiatives and EU level action and support pledges and concrete actions promoting sustainability behaviour across the EU around its priorities: skills development; teacher training; bridging education and science; change in behaviour and awareness raising. Projects, actions, pledges under the Coalition linking with the New European Bauhaus initiative will also be supported.

The European Commission launched in October 2020 the New European Bauhaus¹⁹ with the ambition to help make the Green Deal a cultural, human-centred positive and tangible experience, and calls on all Europeans to imagine and build together a sustainable and inclusive future. Through its broad lifelong learning dimension and cross-disciplinary collaborative approaches across the sectors, Erasmus+ will contribute to equipping Europeans with the necessary skills and developing innovative practices to bring about change.

Climate change is also a key priority for the young generation. According to a 2019 Eurobarometer survey on “How we build a stronger, more united Europe: the views of young people”, protecting the environment and fighting climate change should be a top priority for the EU. Young people made it also clear when devising the European youth goals in the EU Youth dialogue process in 2018 i.e. “Sustainable Green Europe aims to achieve a society in which all young people are environmentally active, educated and able to make a difference in their everyday lives”.

Within this context, the programme can help develop knowledge, skills and attitudes on climate change and sustainable development and support whole-institution approaches to education for environmental sustainability. Erasmus+ will increase the number of mobility opportunities in green forward-looking fields, i.e. those study periods abroad, traineeships, youth or classrooms exchanges, etc. which foster the development of competences, enhance career prospects and engage participants in subject areas which are strategic for the sustainable growth of our planet, with special attention to areas such as rural development, sustainable farming, management of natural resources, soil protection, bio agriculture, healthy oceans.

Environment and fight against global warming will be a horizontal priority for the selection of projects. Among other elements, the programme will also deliver on the so-called ‘Blue Erasmus+’ dimension, notably with project results and knowledge creation, including analyses and best practices relevant for the objective of preserving healthy oceans, seas, coastal and inland waters.

Projects will support the creation of networks and partnerships of various actors in the field of education and training, youth and sport, including schools, higher education institutions and the local communities and industries. These actors will be able to work together on projects promoting awareness, understanding and behaviour change related to sustainability, climate crisis, biodiversity loss and related issues. This will not only involve learning and understanding of these issues, but also practicing what is taught (for example social responsibility; waste reduction; sustainable transport etc.). Young people and NGOs are expected to play a significant role as agents of change and co-creators of project ideas. Platforms such as eTwinning, the School Education Gateway (to be merged in 2022), and EPALE will continue to produce support materials and facilitate the exchange of effective educational practices and policies on environmental and sustainability matters. Erasmus+ is also a powerful instrument to reach out to and engage with a wide spectrum of players in our society (schools, higher education institutions, VET providers, youth and sport organisations, NGOs, local and regional authorities, civil society organisations, etc.). Moreover, Erasmus+, with mobility at its core, should strive for carbon-neutrality by promoting sustainable transport modes and more responsible behaviour. Activities such as DiscoverEU are leading by example, promoting environmental sustainability, offering activities (including opportunities to participate in initiatives outside the programme, such as for instance the 3 billion Tree Planting pledge) and learning opportunities.

Digital Erasmus+

In close alignment with the Digital Education Action Plan's two strategic priorities, developing a high performing digital education ecosystem and enhancing digital skills and competences for the digital transformation, Erasmus+ will continue to be mobilised to respond to the necessary digital transformation of education and training, youth and sport. The programme aims to foster the development of digital skills and competences; support digital transformation plans of education institutions in their efforts to manage an effective shift towards digital education; support the purposeful use of digital technologies for teaching, learning, assessment and engagement; foster teachers' capacity to use digital tools and digital education content in their learning design, including in blended learning approaches; develop accessible and high quality digital learning; and improve exchange and cooperation in digital education at the EU level through the Digital Education Hub.

In order to support the digital transformation of education and training, youth and sport, as well as to provide more inclusive formats to participants who cannot take part in typical long-term mobility periods, the programme will complement physical mobility under Erasmus+, the latter remaining the core activity of Erasmus+, by continuing to promoting distance and blended learning. Moreover, it will broaden and reinforce its offer of learning opportunities focusing on basic and advanced digital competence development, virtual exchanges and support digital education focused cooperation projects, also with priority regions neighbouring the EU.

The cooperation projects will continue to support the development of innovative practices and digital methods for education, vocational training and youth work. Flagship initiatives such as the European Universities, the Centres for Vocational Excellence and the Erasmus+ Teacher Academies, as well as the Digital Education Hub, will have a leading role in the digital transformation of education and training systems. In addition, the Programme will continue to increase long-standing support and investment in European online platforms for virtual cooperation and digital education such as eTwinning and the School Education Gateway (to be merged in 2022), EPALe, or the European Youth Portal to facilitate online mutual learning between countries on system, institution and professional/individual development, including for communities of practice in the area of youth work (development expected to start in 2022). The Programme will also help to further develop and adapt successful tools such as SELFIE tool for whole school digital planning and the new SELFIE for Teachers, Europass or the Youthpass. The programme implementation will be significantly digitalised, for instance through initiatives such as the European Student Card (to be implemented initially in the field of higher education), or a revamped IT architecture for beneficiaries and implementing bodies. The European Student Card Initiative will further digitalise mobility management processes and improve the efficiency and security of digital exchange of information.

Participation in democratic life, common values and civic engagement

The 2017 Commission Communication²⁰ 'Strengthening European identity through education and culture' highlighted the pivotal role that education, culture and sport play in promoting active citizenship and common values among the youngest generations. The Erasmus+ Regulation recalls this role and stresses the need to strengthen priorities on fostering European identity, active citizenship and participation in democratic life.

The Regulation recalls the Programme key role in strengthening European identity and values and in contributing to a more democratic Union. Both formal education and non-formal learning as well as youth work can enhance the development of social and intercultural competences, critical thinking and media literacy. And the programme can reach out and engage many different actors in our societies through its activities and sectors, in order to raise awareness of European common values (such as freedom, tolerance and non-discrimination), as well as European history and culture.

The Regulation also emphasises the objective of encouraging the participation of young people in Europe's democratic life; this can be achieved inter alia by supporting activities that contribute to citizenship education and participation projects for young people.

The programme will continue to empower young people and to encourage their participation in democratic life, particularly through the European Year of Youth in 2022.

In addition to the overarching transversal priorities, field-specific priorities are to be reflected in the actions supported by the programme in 2022.

Higher education

The Communication on achieving the European Education Area by 2025 sets higher education as one of its core dimensions, and the Communication on a new ERA for Research and Innovation calls for the further development of synergies between higher education and research, building on the dual role of higher education institutions. The Commission will work together with the higher education sector and Member States to co-create incentives for an accelerated transformation of the higher education sector in Europe, in an open and inclusive manner and with a focus on all its missions (education, research, innovation, service to society). Such transformation will focus on values and democracy, connectivity among higher education institutions and between them and other ecosystem actors, entrepreneurship, inclusion, addressing digital and green readiness and resilience, innovation, openness to the world and international competitiveness. Erasmus+ is instrumental to meeting these goals through its support for policy cooperation among Member States, for ambitious and innovative cooperation settings between higher education institutions and with their knowledge ecosystems; as well as for evidence-building.

Within this context, a key contribution to the European Education Area is the continued support through Erasmus+ of bottom-up alliances of higher education institutions to cooperate seamlessly across borders and disciplines and in different languages. These 'European Universities' will contribute to achieving a more united and stronger Europe and will promote common EU values by bringing together a new generation of Europeans, able to cooperate with different cultures, in different languages, and across borders and disciplines. They will be instrumental in fostering stronger synergies between the European Education Area, the European Research Area and the European Higher Education Area.

The European Education Area operates in synergy with the Bologna Process and the European Research Area, inspiring and supporting other member countries of the European Higher Education Area to benefit from a similar path. These objectives are fully aligned with the Commission initiatives towards the European Education Area. Different strands of the Erasmus+ programme will support these developments and their implementation at national and institutional level throughout the Member States and third countries associated to the programme. The programme will support the implementation of the objectives of these initiatives through sectorial priorities under the partnerships for cooperation and policy related actions.

As it was emphasised in the Communication on achieving the European Education Area by 2025, the Commission will explore options to help remove obstacles to effective transnational cooperation between higher education institutions, including through a genuine European Recognition and Quality Assurance System. This would ensure that external quality assurance safeguards the autonomy of higher education institutions and at the same time maintains public trust for automatic recognition for further learning within and across

Member States. Trust in each other's education system is indispensable to achieve this objective, which is built on transparent quality assurance systems and automatic recognition of qualifications and learning periods abroad.

The European Student Card initiative, as a pillar of the European Education Area will simplify, further digitalise, facilitate and boost student mobility in Europe, substantially reducing the administrative burden in terms of time, expense and effort. The European Student Card Initiative will improve the efficiency and security of digital exchange of information. To maximise the benefits of the initiative and efficiency gains, the use of the 'Erasmus without paper' network and the digital procedures it enables shall become standard for all participating higher education institutions.

The aim is to support the higher education sector in becoming even more inter-connected, innovative, inclusive, green, digital, open to the world and competitive on the global stage. For this purpose, the Programme will encourage much deeper and inter-disciplinary cooperation between higher education institutions, as well as with their surrounding innovation ecosystems, and the strengthening of links between education, research and innovation, notably through the cooperation activities. The focus of the Erasmus+ programme will in particular be on strengthening inclusion, mobility, greening, digitalisation, lifelong learning, quality assurance, fundamental academic values, data tools for the European Education Area and automatic recognition²¹. The underlying objective is to accelerate the transformation of the higher education sector throughout Europe, in order to train the future generations in co-creating knowledge for a resilient, inclusive and sustainable society and in finding innovative solutions to complex societal problems together, as called by the New European Bauhaus. The latter being a creative and interdisciplinary initiative, convening a space of encounter to recuperate and revisit sustainable practices, it can empower the most inspiring practices, and help to design future ways of living.

In this regard, through its various actions relevant to the higher education field, in 2022, the Programme will aim at:

Promoting inter-connected higher education systems: the programme will aim to strengthen the strategic and structured cooperation between higher education institutions through: a) support for developing and testing various types of cooperation models, including virtual and blended cooperation and the use of different digital tools and online platforms; b) improving mobility by implementing automatic mutual recognition of qualifications and learning outcomes, and by embedding mobility in curricula; c) support for higher education institutions to implement the Bologna principles, including promoting fundamental academic values and the standards and guidelines for quality assurance, and tools to enhance mobility for all; d) support for higher education institutions, in strong cooperation with the representatives of Member States, to pilot the possible set-up of a legal statute for alliances of higher education institutions - such as the European Universities, but also beyond; support the experimentation of awarding a joint European degree label.

Stimulating innovative teaching and learning approaches to tackle societal challenges and promote entrepreneurship through support for: a) the development of learning outcomes oriented and student-centred curricula that better meet the learning needs of students and reduce skills mismatches, and promote entrepreneurship, while also being relevant for the labour market and for the wider society, for example by inviting staff from enterprises and the world of work; b) the development, testing and implementation of flexible learning pathways and modular course design (part-time, online or blended) and appropriate forms of assessment, including the development of online assessment; c) promoting the lifelong learning dimension of higher education, including by exploring the possibilities for take-up, validation and recognition of short learning courses leading to micro-credentials; d) implementation of trans-disciplinary approaches and innovative pedagogies such as inverted learning, collaborative online international learning, research-based learning and blended intensive programmes, which support the acquisition of transferable forward-looking skills and entrepreneurship through a challenge-based approach; e) development and implementation of fit-for-purpose STEM higher education curricula, following a STEAM approach; promoting participation of women in STEM fields of study, especially in engineering, ICT and advanced digital skills; f) mainstreaming sustainable development in all curricula for students in all disciplines and at all levels, including on the protection and responsible use of resources for healthy oceans, seas coastal and inland waters, in the wider scope of the Green Deal priorities.

Rewarding excellence in learning, teaching and skills development, through a) developing and implementing strategies and quality culture to reward and incentivise excellence in teaching, including online teaching, enhanced quality of study experience and teaching for learners with fewer opportunities, student-centred learning and teaching in higher education; b) training of academics in new and innovative pedagogies, including teaching in online or blended environments, trans-disciplinary approaches, new curriculum design, delivery and assessment methods linking education with research and innovation where relevant, c) fostering an entrepreneurial, open and innovative higher education sector, by promoting learning and teaching partnerships with commercial and non-commercial organisations in the private sector that foster students' exposure to innovation and entrepreneurship; d) developing new practices in instructional design, based on educational research and creativity.

Supporting green higher education systems, i.e. promoting education for environmental sustainability and supporting the key role of higher education institutions in adapting attitudes, perceptions, values and behaviour to live in a sustainable world, more respectful of our planet. The programme will foster green education systems by a) supporting the integration of education for environmental sustainability - including facing climate change and protecting biodiversity- through a whole-institutional approach that integrates sustainability into all programmes, disciplines and levels of higher education, b) promoting transdisciplinary approaches coupled with a strong disciplinary background and life-long learning, including through micro-credentials, c) support for up-to-date green skills and curricula development in line with the required green skills.

Building inclusive higher education systems: The programme will foster inclusive approaches for the mobility and cooperation activities such as a) increased access, participation and completion rates of people with fewer opportunities, including underrepresented groups, also through developing voluntary quantitative targets; b) active support to incoming mobile participants throughout the process of finding accommodation, including through collaboration with the relevant stakeholders for the provision of appropriate and affordable housing; c) supporting the development of flexible career pathways between education and research as well as support to mental health of students and academics; d) foster gender balance in higher education institutions, across fields of study and in leadership positions; e) fostering civic engagement through the promotion of informal learning and extra-curricular activities and recognition of voluntary and community work in students' academic results.

Supporting digital capabilities of the higher education sector through: a) the creation and implementation of Digital Transformation Plans of higher education institutions; b) development of digital skills and competences of students and staff, for example through Digital Opportunity Traineeships (DOTs); c) the development of digital tools and infrastructure for higher education institutions and their interoperability, especially in view of cooperation between higher education institutions, d) consolidation and further development of higher education data tools and data sources²² to monitor progress towards reaching the objectives of the European Education Area and the Implementation of the European Strategy for Universities, in particular by providing high quality data for indicators covering the four missions of universities; e) supporting higher education institutions in the creation and consolidation of their databases of graduates' contact details, essential for the capacity building of Member States' graduate tracking systems in line with the 2017 Council Recommendation on tracking graduates²³.

Fostering effective, efficient and sustainable system-level funding and governance models, rewarding excellent teaching, innovation and community-relevance.

School education

Principle 1 of the European Pillar of Social Rights²⁴ stipulates that: *'Everyone has the right to quality and inclusive education, training and life-long learning in order to maintain and acquire skills that enable them to participate fully in society and manage successfully transitions in the labour market. Principle 11 states that: *'Children have the right to affordable early childhood education and care of good quality. Children have the right to protection from poverty. Children from disadvantaged backgrounds have the right to specific measures to enhance equal opportunities. The Council Resolution on further developing the European Education Area to support future-oriented education and training systems²⁵ recalls the ambitions expressed in the Council Conclusions on moving towards a vision of a European Education Area²⁶ that the area should be underpinned by the life-long learning continuum, from early childhood education and care to school and vocational education and training, to higher education and adult learning. The programme will support actions promoting and fostering mobility and cooperation in education and training, and supporting Member States in modernising their education and training systems, promoting teaching and learning of languages, mutual recognition of qualifications and outcomes of learning periods abroad.

The programme will implement the initiatives outlined in the Commission Communication on Achieving the European Education Area by 2025²⁷ aimed at increasing quality and inclusiveness of school education, promoting equity and outreach to people with fewer opportunities, enhance competence and motivation of teachers, and help strengthen understanding of climate change and sustainability.

The European online platforms for cooperation - eTwinning and the School Education Gateway, which will be merged in the European School Education Platform in 2022, will continue to make a significant contribution to system, school and professional development.

The new European Bauhaus initiative can also be a catalyst for contributions from the school sector, in particular by building on interrelations among culture, art and science with a view to helping to devise a more sustainable future through creativity and innovation.

The Council Conclusions on ‘European teachers and trainers for the future’²⁸ of May 2020 recognise that teachers and trainers are an indispensable driving force of education and training, and acknowledge their commitment during the COVID-19 crisis. The Programme is instrumental to support the development of teachers’ and trainers’ competences, their participation in continuous professional development and fostered wellbeing through cooperation and mobility including the Digital Opportunity Traineeships (DOTs), as well as their involvement in future policy design. The new SELFIE for Teachers tool will support primary and secondary teachers to reflect on their digital competence and identify their learning needs and areas for further development. Supporting passionate, positive, engaged, ambitious and highly competent teachers who inspire learners to reach their full potential is crucial to achieving the policy objectives enshrined in the European Education Area.

In this context, in 2022, the objective is to support actions that contribute to:

Tackling early school leaving, low basic skills proficiency and educational disadvantage, enabling school success for all learners regardless of their personal situation and socio-economic background, with a special focus on children at risk of underachievement and drop-out (e.g. pupils with disabilities or with migrant background, ethnic minorities, from low-educated families, or living in remote areas²⁹), for example by: promoting whole-school approaches to tackling underachievement and early leaving from education and training; strengthening collaboration among all actors within schools, as well as with families and other external stakeholders; improving transitions between different stages of education; fostering monitoring, preventive and early intervention approaches; addressing well-being, mental health, personal empowerment, including combatting bullying and harassment at school and online; supporting networking of schools which promote collaborative and holistic approaches to teaching and learning; developing strong quality assurance systems to achieve high-quality inclusive education. This has become even more important in the context of the COVID-19 crisis.

Developing high quality inclusive early childhood education and care systems (in line with the ECEC Council Recommendation³⁰), for example by: supporting initial and continuing professional development of all staff involved in organising, leading and providing early childhood education and care; creating, testing or implementing strategies and practices to foster participation of all children in early childhood education and care, including children in need of special support (e.g. children with fewer opportunities, including children with disabilities, children from a migrant background, Roma children, etc...); promoting the implementation of the EU quality framework for quality early childhood education and care.

Strengthening recruitment, retention and regeneration within the school education profession, including teachers, school leaders and teacher educators, for example by: making careers more attractive and coherent, including by developing diverse pathways and national frameworks for school education careers; strengthening selection, recruitment and evaluations (models of staff appraisal, assessment and feedback); enhancing teachers' initial education, induction, and continuous professional development and linking its different phases through collaboration between teacher education providers; supporting the development of leadership competences through specific professional development opportunities and promoting distributed leadership; facilitating and significantly increasing teacher mobility, including by overcoming remaining obstacles and developing a policy framework on teacher mobility; supporting national administrations and stakeholders' collaboration to develop innovative approaches to teaching and learning, including assessment methods, for broad competence development.

Reinforcing the development of a range of key competences (in line with the Council Recommendation on Key Competences for Lifelong Learning³¹) for example by: promoting cross-curricular collaboration; supporting innovation in teaching and learning approaches; supporting the blend of different learning environments and tools, including digital tools; supporting the creation and implementation of digital transformation plans of schools; supporting cooperation between schools and stakeholders in local communities and abroad; supporting system-wide collaboration in developing varied approaches to the assessment and validation of key competences.

Promoting education for environmental sustainability, for example by (i) raising awareness and prompting of concrete actions at both personal and societal levels for addressing today's environmental challenges; (ii) developing the key competences (knowledge, skills and attitudes) for climate change and sustainable development including the underlying science of the challenges and their possible technological solutions; (iii) strengthening the professional competences of teachers; (iv) testing of innovative practices to prepare learners from early school ages and educational staff to become "agents for change" (e.g. behavioural changes towards recycling, reduced consumption, and sustainable lifestyles); and (v) supporting whole-school approaches to sustainability, as well as creativity and innovation in line with the New European Bauhaus.

Promoting a comprehensive approach to language teaching and learning (in line with the Council Recommendation on language teaching and learning³²), building on the increasing linguistic diversity in schools, for example by: promoting the concept by "language aware schools", valorising home languages, ultimately strengthening proficiency in the language of schooling among pupils with diverse backgrounds, encouraging language learning and awareness from early childhood education and care and in a lifelong learning perspective; mainstreaming the use of new technologies to support language learning; supporting the integration of the language dimension across the curricula; focusing on reaching adequate competence levels by the end of compulsory education; developing bilingual teaching options, especially for border regions and/or in areas where inhabitants use more than one language³³.

Increasing the levels of achievement and interest in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM). This priority will include, among others: promoting the development of national STEM strategies; developing partnerships between schools, businesses, higher education institutions, research institutions, and wider society; promoting effective and innovative pedagogies and assessment; supporting girls interest in STEM and overcoming gender stereotypes in education and educational careers; promoting the STE(A)M approach to education through interdisciplinary teaching of STEM in cultural, environmental, economic, and other contexts, with the involvement of all academic disciplines.

Building capacity for promoting and facilitating recognition of learning periods abroad (including follow-up to the Council Recommendation on automatic mutual recognition), including promoting recognition of formal education and transversal competences developed through non-formal and informal learning, for example by: building administrative capacity of schools to support participation of pupils in transnational projects and peer exchanges, including by pooling capacity of several schools through joint projects or projects led by local and regional school authorities, coordination bodies and other organisations with a role in school education; establishing sustainable partnerships between organisations setting cross-border learning exchanges in general education; promoting embedded class exchanges or pupil mobility in school programmes; ensuring appropriate safety standards for pupils participating in transnational mobility; developing and disseminating tools and mechanisms for the preparation, monitoring and recognition of periods abroad; and sharing and promoting good practices.

Vocational education and training (VET)

The 2021 Council Resolution³⁴ on a strategic framework for European cooperation in education and training towards the European Education Area and beyond (2021-2030) lays down a comprehensive framework, which intends to cover teaching, training and learning in all contexts and levels, including vocational education and training (VET).

The recently adopted European Skills Agenda sets-out ambitious targets to ensure Europeans improve or gain new skills throughout their life and career, with a particular emphasis on up- and re- skilling the workforce for the twin green and digital transitions. One of the key actions of the Skills Agenda is the Council Recommendation on Vocational Education and Training (VET)³⁵, which was then followed by the Osnabrück Declaration³⁶ endorsed by the Ministers in charge of VET of the Member States, the EU Candidate Countries and the EEA countries, the European social partners and the European Commission who agreed on a new set of policy actions in VET for the period of 2021-2025, aimed to complement and operationalise the vision and strategic objectives formulated in the Council Recommendation.

The VET Recommendation is aimed at equipping young people and adults to manage the just transitions to the green and digital economy, while ensuring inclusiveness and equal opportunities and contributing to achieving resilience, social fairness and prosperity, as well as to promote European vocational education and training systems in an international context so that they are recognized as a worldwide reference for vocational learners. It puts forward actions to be implemented at both national and EU level aiming to modernise vocational education and training by adapting it to a more digital and greener economy and also to the evolving labour market and society needs, while providing quality opportunities for young and adults alike, reinforcing opportunities for work-based learning and apprenticeships in line with the 2018 Council Recommendation on a 'European Framework for Quality and Effective Apprenticeships'³⁷, increasing flexibility of VET by encouraging modular and non-formal learning methods, increasing the digital readiness of VET institutions, boosting the quality assurance of vocational education and training and to promote Centres of Vocational Excellence (CoVE), as well as exploring the concept and use of micro-credentials, including in VET, together with Member States and relevant stakeholders, including in the context of the EQF Advisory Group, as proposed in the European Skills Agenda.

The CoVEs connect reference VET providers across Member States, foster cooperation, including with stakeholders, and strive to develop high quality curricula and qualifications focused on sectoral skills needs and societal challenges. They act as drivers of excellence and innovation and promote a proactive role for VET in local and regional economic development, including by seeking synergies with higher education institutions and jointly contributing to the provision of the range of skills needed in our modern economies and societies. The Centres will act as entrepreneurial incubators and catalysts for investment.

The Erasmus+ programme is the main source of EU funding that contributes to achieve the target of 8% for learners benefiting from a mobility experience abroad as set in the Council Recommendation on VET.

In the field of vocational education and training (both initial and continuing), actions contributing to the following objectives linked to the Council Recommendation on VET and the Osnabrück Declaration will be supported in 2022:

- Agile VET, which adapts to labour market needs. This includes a) VET programmes that offer a balanced mix of vocational including technical skills well aligned to all economic cycles, evolving jobs and working methods and key competences, including solid basic skills, digital, languages, transversal, green and other life skills which provide strong foundations for resilience, lifelong learning, lifelong employability, social inclusion, active citizenship and personal development; b) VET curricula, programme offers and qualifications which are regularly updated, building on skills intelligence (i.e. graduate tracking systems, skills anticipation mechanisms, including at sectoral and regional levels); c) an appropriate degree of autonomy of VET providers, flexibility, support and funding to adapt their training offer to changing skills needs, green and digital transitions and economic cycles; d) VET programme at all levels which comprise work-based learning components that are further expanded also in continuing vocational education and training, and complemented by appropriate support and measures to stabilise the offer of apprenticeships and to address specific challenges of small companies to create work-based learning opportunities in different sectors of the economy.
- Flexible VET, which provides progression opportunities. This includes a) learner centred VET programmes that offer access to face-to-face and digital or blended learning, flexible and modular pathways based on the recognition of the outcomes of non-formal and informal learning, and open up career and learning progression; b) continuing vocational training programmes designed to be adaptable to labour market, sectoral or individual up- or reskilling needs; and c) VET programmes which are based on modules or units of learning outcomes and validation mechanisms allowing the transfer, recognition and accumulation of individuals' learning outcomes with a view to gaining a qualification, a partial qualification, as relevant in the national context. Actions will also aim to close existing gaps in the access to training for working age adults, and at empowering them to successfully manage labour market transitions.
- VET driving innovation and growth, and preparing for the digital and green transitions. This includes a) integration of VET into economic, industrial and innovation strategies, including those linked to green and digital transitions; b) expansion of the training offer fostering the acquisition of entrepreneurial, digital and green skills; c) establishment of Centres of Vocational Excellence, which act as catalysts for local business investment, supporting green and digital transitions, European and regional innovation and smart specialisation strategies, development of vocational education and training, including at higher qualification levels (European Qualifications Framework for lifelong learning EQF levels 5-8), in line with national context and provide innovative services such as clusters and business incubators for start-ups and technology innovation for SMEs, as well as innovative reskilling solutions for workers at risk of redundancy; and d) access to state-of-the-art infrastructure, digitalisation strategies in line with national context and environmental and social sustainability in VET programmes and organisational management, thus contributing to the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

- VET as an attractive choice based on modern and digitalised provision of training/skills. This includes a) permeability between both initial and continuing vocational education and training, general education and higher education; b) development of VET at EQF levels 5 to 8; c) delivery based on a mix of open, digital and participative learning environments, including learning conducive workplaces supported by state-of-the-art and accessible infrastructure, equipment and technology, and accompanied by versatile pedagogies and tools (e.g. ICT based simulators, virtual and augmented reality); d) initial and continuing professional development of VET teachers and trainers and the creation and implementation of digital transformation plans of VET institutions to foster technical and digital skills and effective innovative training methods, including teaching in virtual environment, in line with state of the art vocational and digital pedagogy, work with digital learning tools, and in diverse and multicultural environments; e) internationalisation strategies supporting a strategic approach to international cooperation in VET, including the preparation, training and participation of VET learners and staff in international, national, regional and sectoral skills competitions; f) Opportunities for learning mobility of vocational learners and staff, including through the Digital Opportunity Traineeships (DOT), virtual mobility, long-duration mobility and mobility to third countries not associated to the programme are in place, facilitated by the use and recognition of units of learning outcomes and of relevant European tools (Memorandum of Understanding and the Learning Agreement); and g) high quality lifelong learning and career guidance services, making full use of Europass and other digital services.
- VET that promotes equal opportunities. This includes a) inclusive and accessible programmes for marginalised and vulnerable groups, such as people with disabilities, low-qualified/skilled persons, minorities, people with migrant background and people with fewer opportunities because of their geographical location such as people living in remote areas and/or their social-economically disadvantaged situation; b) targeted measures and flexible training formats prevent early leaving from education and training and support the school-to-work transition; c) programmes accessible through digital learning platforms, supported by tools, devices and internet connection, in particular for marginalised or vulnerable groups and people in rural or remote areas; and d) targeted measures promoting gender balance in traditionally “male” or “female” professions and address gender and other stereotypes.
- VET underpinned by a culture of quality assurance. This includes further development of national quality assurance systems, for both initial and continuing VET, in all learning environments (such as school-based provision and work-based learning, including apprenticeship schemes) and all learning types (digital, face-to-face or blended), delivered by both public and private providers, underpinned by a set of indicative descriptors and common reference indicators for quality assurance in vocational education and training applied both at system and provider level as defined in Annex II of the Council Recommendation on VET.

- Actions to boost quality assurance in VET through a reinforcement of the European Quality Assurance in Vocational Education and Training EQAVET Framework, by exploring EU vocational core profiles, and the potential role of micro-credentials. The Programme will also contribute to the achievement of the three quantitative objectives defined in the Council Recommendation on VET.

Adult education

In the adult education field, in line with the quality objectives of the European Skills Agenda, the European Education Area and the European Pillar of Social Rights Action Plan, as well as with the recently adopted Council Resolution on a New European agenda for adult learning, the Programme will contribute in 2022 – through mobility and cooperation actions – to empowering individuals' participation in inclusive education and training notably through support for non-formal, lifelong learning and local/community learning, social fairness reaching out to people of all backgrounds and in all geographical areas, urban or rural, including older adults. The 'Skills for Life' action is aimed at supporting people independently of their age, background or status, developing the skills and capacity to adapt and manage change in all aspects of their lives, skills to progress at work, navigate job transitions and remain employable, and at closing existing gaps in the access to training for working age adults. The action of the European Skills Agenda on the 'Initiative on the individual learning accounts' perceives direct incentives for people to train, such as individual learning accounts, as a tool which can make lifelong learning a reality. They can help individuals to adapt to evolving skills needs in a job, or to change occupation or sector. The European Skills Agenda also sets a target of 50% for adult participation in learning³⁸ (with dedicated targets for the unemployed and the low-qualified) and of 70% of the adult population in the EU with at least basic digital skills by 2025. The Council Resolution on a strategic framework for European cooperation in education and training towards the European Education Area and beyond (2021-2030) indicates that at least 47% of adults aged 25-64 should have participated in learning during the last 12 months, by 2025. Consistently, the European Pillar of Social Rights Action Plan envisages that by 2030 adult participation in learning should reach 60%, a target endorsed by Heads of State and Government in the Porto Social Summit of 7 May 2021. In line with these targets, the Council Resolution on a new European agenda for adult learning 2021-2030 (NEAAL 2030) adopted by the Council on 29 November 2021, has the overall objective to increase and improve the provision, promotion and take-up of formal, non-formal and informal learning opportunities for all. The NEAAL 2030's main priorities areas are: governance, supply and take-up of lifelong learning opportunities, accessibility and flexibility, quality, equity, inclusion and success in adult learning, the green and digital transitions.

Continued implementation of the 2016 Council Recommendation on 'Upskilling Pathways: New Opportunities for Adults'³⁹ is crucial to meet the objectives of the European Skills Agenda, to increase participation of low-qualified adults and the share of adults with (at least) basic digital skills. 'Upskilling Pathways' recommends Member States to 'offer adults with a low level of skills, knowledge and competences access to upskilling pathways, to acquire a minimum level of literacy, numeracy and digital competence; and/or acquire a wider set of skills, knowledge and competences relevant for the labour market and active participation in society', accompanied by outreach, assessment, guidance, validation and financial support and specific teacher training, to make the learning offer relevant and targeted to the learners needs.

³⁹ https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?uri=OJ:JOC_2016_484_R_0001

Beyond basic skills, the partnerships within the ‘Pact for Skills’, an action of the European Skills Agenda, will have adult upskilling and reskilling as their main focus.

In the field of adult education, the following objectives should be pursued in 2022:

- The development and provision of skills for life and non-formal learning in cooperation with local learning centres, libraries, cultural centres, NGOs, etc.
- The creation and implementation of digital transformation plans of adult learning institutions.
- The setup or enlarging of an access to upskilling pathways for adults with a low level of skills, knowledge and competences allowing them to enhance their literacy, numeracy and digital competences, as well as other key competences, and to progress towards higher qualifications, including through skills identification and screening or tailored learning offers.
- Empowering and enabling adults to participate in training in order to reduce skills gaps and labour market shortages, in particular through individual learning accounts, complemented by the provision of enabling services. This should include guidance, validation, recognition (including through micro-credentials), transparency of the quality of training opportunities and educational leave arrangements.
- Improving and extending the supply of high quality learning opportunities for adults by making available flexible learning offers adapted to their learning needs (e.g. blended learning, digital learning applications), and by the validation of skills acquired through informal and non-formal learning.
- Increasing learning demand and take-up through effective outreach, guidance and motivation strategies that support and encourage low-skilled and/or low-qualified adults, migrants, seniors and people with disabilities or social disadvantages; developing guidance as a service to ensure that adults have access to relevant learning throughout life.
- Extending and developing the competences of educators and teachers and other personnel who support adult learners, in particular in developing their skills to recognise and respond to individual learning needs e.g. designing tailored paths or plans adapted to learner background and circumstances; develop the digital competences of educators, e.g. through the Digital Opportunity Traineeships (DOTs) and improve teaching methods and tools through effective use of innovative solutions and digital technologies.
- Developing mechanisms to monitor the effectiveness and improve quality assurance of adult learning policies and provision, and to track the progress of adult learners.
- Creating and promoting learning opportunities among all citizens and generations, including intergenerational learning, with a view to building better understanding of the European Union and its values, and adding solidity to the European identity.

Youth

In line with the EU Youth Strategy, the Erasmus+ actions supported in 2022 under the Youth strand also contribute to the implementation of the Council Resolution on the Framework for establishing a European Youth Work Agenda. Through the Erasmus+ accreditation system in the field of youth, the Programme will facilitate cross-border exchanges for young people and youth workers (in certain cases beyond the EU), and cooperation, build capacity of organisations and overall foster quality development of youth work, including through the implementation of the European Youth Work Agenda and the Bonn Process⁴⁰, and the definition of common skills. Through promotion of education and training of youth workers and non-vocational qualifications for youth work, the programme will also encourage the mobility of youth workers within the EU. Erasmus+ will support new types of actions such as the Youth participation activities and DiscoverEU that aim to enhance the focus on empowering young people, fostering their active participation in the society and supporting their personal and professional development.

In this respect, the EU seeks to help eliminate obstacles to volunteering in Europe by raising awareness, increasing the capacity to offer volunteering opportunities, reducing barriers to participation especially for disadvantaged groups and increasing the recognition of skills gained. The Council Recommendation of 20 November 2008⁴¹ sets out the current framework for this and, upon the Council's invitation, the Commission will put forward a proposal for an update of the 2008 Recommendation to take into account developments since then.

Also in line with the EU Youth strategy and the proposed European Year of Youth, the programme will promote projects aiming at engaging, connecting and empowering young people: priority will be given to strengthening cross-sectorial cooperation, allowing for greater synergies across different areas of actions that matter for young people. A special focus will be put on participation – including alternative and innovative forms of participation – and active citizenship of young people, notably those that involve youth at risk of social exclusion and discrimination and those living in remote regions where there are few educational possibilities. Against this background, the programme will help to:

Engage

- Enhance the participation of all young people in democratic and civic life in Europe;
- Enable young people to connect with, express their views and be heard by elected policy-makers, public administrations, interest groups, civil society organisations or individuals active in political or social processes affecting their lives;
- Enhance critical thinking and media literacy among young people to strengthen democracy and counter manipulation, propaganda and disinformation;
- Broaden and deepen political, civic and social participation of young people at local, regional, national, European or global level, including encouraging participation in, synergies and exchanges with national civil service schemes.

Connect

- Foster active citizenship and notably volunteering and solidarity among young people;
- Increase social inclusion of all young people, building on EU values;
- Promote intercultural dialogue and promote knowledge about and acceptance of diversity and tolerance in society;
- Strengthen young people's sense of initiative, notably in the social field and to support their communities, including to help reimagine how to live better together after the pandemic, by building on their willingness to participate in policies relevant to build a more sustainable future and also on their creativity, building on the European Green Deal;
- Promote entrepreneurship, creative learning and social entrepreneurship among young people;
- Reinforce links between policy, research and practice and promote better knowledge

⁴⁰ The Bonn Process is the joint effort to implement the European Youth Work Agenda: <https://www.eywc2020.eu/en/agenda/bonn-process> about the situation of young people and youth policies.

Empower

- Contribute to quality and innovation in youth work and its recognition, in line with the priorities enshrined in the European Youth Work Agenda and the December 2020 Bonn Declaration;
- Contribute to the quality of education and training and of non-vocational qualifications for youth workers and support projects in developing and sharing methods in order to contribute to the European Education Area;
- Support capacity-building of youth workers and youth work practices, whether they are digital or face-to-face;
- Support youth workers in developing and sharing effective methods in reaching out to marginalised young people, in preventing racism and intolerance among youth, and in addressing the risks, opportunities, and implications of digitalisation;
- Foster the inclusion and employability of young people with fewer opportunities (including for persons not in education, employment or training), with particular emphasis in young people at risk of marginalisation and those with a migrant background, as well as those living in remote areas;
- Open up youth work to cross-sectoral cooperation allowing greater synergies across all areas of actions that address the concerns of young people;
- Ease transition of young people from youth to adulthood, including supporting the integration into the labour market by addressing key competences and other organisational support that youth work can bring;
- Promote recognition and validation of youth work and informal and non-formal learning at European, national, regional and local levels.

Sport

The fourth EU Work Plan for Sport sets the basis for intense cooperation in three priority areas: the integrity and the values of sport, the socio-economic and environmental dimensions of sport, and promotion of sport and physical activity. This includes in 2022 actions related to governance, education, inclusion, gender equality, sport for all generations, green and sustainable sport.

The priority of sport actions will continue to be grassroots sport, increased participation in sport and awareness of the importance of health-enhancing physical activity. Building on the success of the Tartu Call for a Healthy Life Style, the initiative HealthyLifestyle4All launched by Commissioner Mariya Gabriel in September 2021⁴² will further strengthen cross-sectoral cooperation to promote healthy lifestyles. The HealthyLifestyle4All initiative, through its three pillars is devoted to 1) raising awareness on healthy lifestyles, 2) having a better access to sport and physical activity and 3) creating a holistic approach to food, health and sport in youth, one of its key target audiences. The results of this initiative will help to further support the European Year of Youth.

In 2022, the Erasmus+ programme will continue to promote participation in sport and physical activity and will put emphasis on grassroots sport, with a view to ensuring increased participation of small-sized organisations.

The sport actions will continue to support initiatives that tackle cross-border threats to the integrity of sport, such as doping, match fixing and violence, as well as all kinds of intolerance, harassment and discrimination and activities leading to or related to violent extremism. It will also promote and support good governance in sport and dual careers of athletes and voluntary activities in sport, together with social inclusion, including of refugees and migrants. The implementation of the Erasmus+ sport actions will continue to assist sporting organisations and clubs to recover from the COVID-19 crisis. Continuity will be ensured in the support of the European Week of Sport and the implementation of EU guidelines (EU Physical Activity Guidelines and EU Guidelines on Dual Careers of Athletes). Social inclusion, promotion of good governance principles and the fight against violence and intolerance in sport will also be a major focus within the Sport actions in 2022.

The European Week of Sport will be used to raise awareness of the need to practice sport and physical activity, including for health reasons. The annual EU Sport Forum will continue to be a unique opportunity for sport organisations to meet and discuss key topics in the field of sport with policy makers, representatives of EU institutions, and Member States.

In addition the SHARE (SportHub: Alliance for Regional development in Europe) initiative will continue to promote the role of sport and physical activity as an instrument for economic social and cultural development towards more healthy and active communities, and enabling spaces for healthy lifestyles, for instance in the context of the New European Bauhaus.

The #Beinclusive EU sport awards will once again recognise sport organisations working with ethnic minorities, refugees, people with disabilities, youth groups at risk, or other groups that face challenging social circumstances. A new gala of the #BeActive awards will be organised in 2022 and will see the addition of the #BeActive Across Generations Award in support of the HealthyLifestyle4All initiative.

The programme will continue to support evidence-based policy in the field of sport. Two groups of experts in the fields of Green Sport and Strengthening the recovery and the crisis resilience of the sport sector during and in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic will support the Sport actions. In addition, a High Level Group on Gender Equality in Sport is tasked with creating concrete measures to ensure equal opportunities in sport, within the framework of the EU Gender Equality Strategy 2021-2025.

Erasmus+ in the world

Enhancing the international dimension of education and training, youth and sports in third countries not associated to the programme promotes the Union's action globally, the EU external action objectives, geopolitical priorities and principles. In line with the 9 April 2019 Council Conclusions 'Towards an ever more sustainable Union by 2030'⁴³, education, the development of knowledge and skills, as well as the development of a sense of responsibility for a more sustainable world, environmental protection and global citizenship are key drivers for sustainable development. Erasmus+ is therefore an important catalyst for achieving all Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) and in particular SDG 4 aiming to 'ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all', and leaving 'no one behind', contributing to the EU's commitment to the 2030 Agenda for

⁴³ <https://data.consilium.europa.eu/doc/document/ST-8286-2019-INIT/en/pdf>

Sustainable Development⁴⁴. This commitment is all the more important in the context of the COVID-19 crisis, which has already impaired the progress made in the last years.

The programme offers a strong international dimension supporting the external dimension of internal policies and the EU's external priorities. It strengthens societal links through enhanced mobility and education exchanges and capacity building, nurturing social resilience, human development, employability, active participation and ensuring regular channels for people-to-people cooperation and connectivity worldwide and to build a positive image of Europe in the world, spreading its fundamental values, thus also facilitating EU policy dialogue and public diplomacy actions. In addition to the mobility of individuals between higher education institutions in associated and not associated countries, outgoing mobility towards third countries not associated to the programme of VET learners and VET staff, and dedicated scholarships for excellent students worldwide, the programme also supports capacity building actions in higher education, vocational education and training, youth and sports. These activities will offer a response to the challenges of quality, modernisation and employability through increased relevance and responsiveness of education for a green and sustainable socio-economic growth and prosperity in third countries not associated to the programme. Exchange, cooperation and dialogue in the field of youth and non-formal learning will be supported as a driver of sustainable socio-economic development and well-being of young people, as well as intercultural dialogue and soft skills development through virtual exchanges. Support will also be available for sport activities and policies as a vehicle to promote values, the personal and social development of individuals and to build more cohesive communities. Erasmus+ will ensure coherence and synergies with the priorities and support in the education sector that the EU conducts in the third countries not associated to the programme. On operational level, actions under Erasmus+ activities will seek complementarity with ongoing bilateral policy dialogue and support to structural reforms through the EU's financial and technical international cooperation as well as with Member States activities in the field.

Jean Monnet

Jean Monnet activities continue to bring important contributions to the reflections on the future of Europe by promoting excellence in teaching and research in the field of European studies, in Europe and worldwide. Jean Monnet actions represent a very effective EU Public Diplomacy tool.

Jean Monnet actions enhance understanding and foster knowledge and awareness about EU matters and policies through increased opportunities for teaching, learning and debating, both at higher education and general education and training levels, while improving the quality of teaching and professional training on EU subjects. Jean Monnet activities also foster the dialogue between the academic world and policy-makers to enhance governance of EU policies.

The Jean Monnet action also supports activities in other fields of education and training (schools and vocational education and training), aiming to diversify and mainstream EU-related subjects in study programmes, to raise awareness and exchange views, as well as to develop relevant content and innovative tools.

The Jean Monnet action will continue the support to the designated institutions pursuing an aim of European interest, as identified in the legal basis, providing high quality service e.g.

research for preparing future policies, teaching, dissemination of results and general information for the broad public.

2.3 ERASMUS+ AND THE RESILIENCE OF THE UNION

The European economy has faced a profound and unprecedented shock with the COVID-19 pandemic, putting a serious strain on the economy, labour market, social, health and education and training systems of Member States. Facing this challenge, the Union took strong action to recover from the health, social and economic shock. Direct and indirect effects of the pandemic have severely impacted all Member States' education and training systems and youth and sport policies. The pandemic has increased levels of social and territorial inequalities and severely disrupted education and training provision, and limited drastically the opportunities for youth and sport activities, in particular for the athletes. Consequences of the pandemic on young people and on the youth sector underlined the importance to reflect on the role of democracy in our society and highlighted the key role of civic education, media literacy, digital youth work and awareness of disinformation to promote active participation and engagement of the young. The massive shift towards online education and digital youth work emphasized the need for quick reforms, capacity-building, teacher and youth workers training, skills development, new pedagogies and further transnational cooperation in quality assurance, but also to prepare for the future and increase digital readiness. The vital role of digitalisation became abundantly clear in preserving uninterrupted and fair access to quality education, in enabling educators to minimise disruption and ensuring the continuity of assessment and examination.

The pandemic has been an unprecedented stress test for the Erasmus+ programme in terms of resilience and business continuity. In 2022, the programme will therefore continue investing in mobility and cooperation in education and training, youth and sport, to foster skills and competences development necessary for the twin transitions.

In 2022, Erasmus+ remains true to its long standing mission to support transnational learning mobility. By boosting budgetary appropriations towards Key Action 1, the programme stands ready to cater for a possible resumption of demand for cross-border activities (as long as the lifting or attenuation of travel restrictions will result in more conducive conditions for transnational mobility), Erasmus+ will also keep providing vital support to partnerships for cooperation projects, and to policy development in Member States, thereby accelerating structural reforms. The programme will help drive systemic impact in mainstreaming innovative policies and accelerating new practices that improve the quality and relevance of education, training and youth systems throughout Europe, at national, regional and local level.

The Erasmus+ resilience effort will mobilise hundreds of thousands of schools, higher education institutions, vocational training institutes, teachers, young people, youth and sport organisations, civil society and other stakeholders. Partnerships and exchanges (virtual and physical) across Europe will provide the basis for (re)connecting across Europe and working together on the most practical and innovative solutions. The programme will contribute to closing the education gap between affluent and disadvantaged regions and learners, fostering equality, including gender equality, entrepreneurship, empowering both young people and adults of all backgrounds with the knowledge, skills and attitudes they need for employment, social integration and active citizenship.

This concrete response of the Erasmus+ programme will contribute to mitigating the socio-economic and educational consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic, while preparing Europe's future in the spirit of solidarity among its people.

The programme contribution will consist in particular of the following elements:

- Digital education and training. Millions of Europeans now engage in digital education and training and depend on digital tools to connect with teachers and other learners to undertake distance and online learning and teaching, to access a range of information and to benefit from a more personalised learning experience that digital technology can support. The rapid shift during COVID-19 to remote and hybrid learning accelerated the ongoing digital transformation of the education and training systems and demonstrated that it is essential for many kindergartens, schools, higher education institutions, vocational schools, civil society organisations, youth workers, learning communities throughout the EU to have adequate digital competence and resources, capabilities and readiness to face this unprecedented challenges. Digital education should become an important part of learning and teaching through the adoption of blended models of learning. Digital learning is highly beneficial for educators and learners even outside the COVID-19 context.
The use of digital technology brings major challenges for educators and learners, including: lack of remote learning systems and modalities, pedagogical methods that are not fully adapted to digital learning, the need to provide guidance and support to educators, difficulties with remote examinations, and inequalities in connectivity and access to devices. It is now crucial to ensure that learning management systems are fully appropriate to the needs of stakeholders, that digital tools are appropriately embedded in learning design, while providing sufficient support and guidance and support to educators, developing a range of assessment approaches that are fair and flexible, and ensuring equity in connectivity and access to devices. Efforts aimed at exploiting the potential of digital technologies should also be accompanied by comprehensive considerations in terms of inclusiveness and of social fairness. In a difficult context where Member States are still struggling with finding the best ways of continuing learning cycles, more EU level guidance, Erasmus+ support and capacity-building is crucial to develop digital competences for learners and educators alike, learning methods and reliable tools to support high-quality and inclusive digital education.
- Competence development. People need to be equipped with the knowledge, skills and attitudes needed to contribute to strengthening Europe's economic resilience as part of the response to the crisis. Investment in people is needed to have the right set of competences, knowledge, skills and attitudes from a lifelong learning perspective, addressing the green and digital twin transitions. The programme will boost investments in mobility, including blended mobility in order to fully reach the targets set for this programming period. The green and digital transitions require people to upskill or reskill for a successful move from one job or economic sector to another, as well as for gaining access to further studies. Thus, the need for short and tailored learning options (such as the micro-credentials) and their recognition and validation is expected to grow. Continuous learning opportunities can fill the professional skills and key competences gap, encourage innovation in provision, and reach new types of learners, including people with fewer opportunities, to foster their personal, social and professional development. This will help increase and improve employment prospects, especially for young and low-skilled people, as well as foster social cohesion and sense of belonging to Europe.

- Inclusion and solidarity. These are key ingredients in supporting a full economic and social development in Europe, addressing the effects of the crisis on the most vulnerable groups of learners and young people, and bringing back a sense of European cohesion and solidarity between citizens. The crisis has exacerbated the digital and social divide, exposing structural inequality between learners, between countries and regions. The strong socio-economic bias that the crisis has revealed in the delivery of distance and online learning has shown how important it is to invest in learning opportunities for all, in initiatives to support educational equity for people with fewer opportunities and in intergenerational projects. Ensuring full participation of young people in education and training, youth and sports, regardless of their socio-economic background, their personal situation or their country or region of residence, is of paramount importance. Education, training, youth and sport activities of the programme are all powerful tools to promote inclusion and foster equality. It would be unforgivable in the eyes of the European public opinion if at a moment when the social inclusion gap is visibly widening and there is a call to act, the EU would scale down its ambitions for social inclusivity, its support to young people who have typically been hardest hit by the crisis. Erasmus+ in particular, as a flagship Union's programme, will increase participation rates among people with fewer opportunities through more flexible and simple participation formats, more help prepare and accompany participants in their Erasmus+ mobilities, financial support for those who would need it. A gender equality perspective will be mainstreamed throughout the programme, in line with the principles of the Gender Equality Strategy 2020-25⁴⁵.
- Driving innovation and entrepreneurship. Europe needs more investments in forward-looking study fields relevant for the restart after the pandemic crisis, such as climate change, advanced digital skills, clean energy, artificial intelligence, data analysis, health sciences, etc. These are all essential fields for Europe's future sustainable growth and cohesion, and areas in which Europe needs to develop a pipeline of new talents to grow and develop to achieve a sustainable development path, looking at our green and digital challenges as opportunities to transform our lives for the better.
- Focused mobility and cooperation actions will help the Union unleash its potential for innovation, creativity and entrepreneurship in the digital economy. The Erasmus+ programme, with its lifelong learning continuum, is therefore an excellent instrument to boost learning at all levels (for example through targeted mobility and traineeships in forward-looking study fields, as well as the new partnerships for innovation and for excellence), a role that has become more relevant than ever. By supporting Erasmus+ Teachers' Academies, the programme will be used to pool expertise in teacher education and provide teachers with learning opportunities, in particular on digital learning, and inclusion of pupils with fewer opportunities, including those with special needs. Ambitious initiatives like the European Universities initiative, which aim to change the landscape of higher education in Europe, including by mobilising higher education institutions' preparedness and resilience for remote learning, will strongly contribute to the post-COVID-19 scenario, innovation and entrepreneurship. Centres of Vocational Excellence will have similar effect on skills development. The new Partnerships for Innovation will setup innovative approaches to provide tomorrow's workers with the appropriate skills for rapidly-changing labour markets, and arm tomorrow's workforce with creativity, skills and entrepreneurship to confront the growing complexity of societal challenges while contributing to building a more sustainable and inclusive future.

- Involving young people in the reconnecting across Europe. A focus on young people, their living conditions, their health and wellbeing, and their active participation in democratic society is absolutely necessary in the coming years. Involving, supporting and stimulating young people, youth workers and youth organisations to engage in European cooperation (and beyond) is, more than ever, of very high importance. Erasmus+ mobility and cooperation projects in the field of youth actively engage young people, youth workers and civil society organisations at large and enable them to play an effective role, so that they have more opportunities to take part in participatory processes such as the Conference on the Future of Europe and help shaping their future. The action of the Union will reflect this need and keep on investing in Erasmus+ to multiply the opportunities of exchange and cooperation between young people across Europe and beyond, for example through the new Youth participation activities that aim to help young people engage and learn to participate in democratic life, raising awareness about European Union common values and fundamental rights, bringing together young people and decision makers at local, national and European level.

2.4 ERASMUS+ AND THE EUROPEAN YEAR OF YOUTH

One of the transversal priorities of the Erasmus+ programme is to support participation in democratic life, promote common values and foster active citizenship. The programme will continue to empower young people and to encourage their participation in democratic life, particularly through the European Year of Youth in 2022. According to the European Parliament and Council decision on the European Year of Youth, the objectives of the Year are to listen, engage and promote concrete opportunities for youth. This Year wants to pay tribute and recognise the commitment of young people.

The Budgetary Authority approved a 5 million Euro worth reinforcement to the Erasmus+ programme under the EU budget 2022 procedure.

The addition earmarked by the budgetary authority for the European Year of Youth will mainly be devoted to support the national coordination of the Year and exceptionally increase the support to youth networks (in particular the European Youth Forum). Additional budget is foreseen to support activities of the Year for civil society organisations, national working groups and information multipliers (such as Eurodesk), as well as communication and events. The Year will also allow a reinforced budget to youth participation activities, youth mobility and DiscoverEU, and will encourage participation of all young people, especially those with fewer opportunities.

PART II - GRANTS, PROCUREMENTS AND OTHER ACTIONS

1. BUDGET LINES AND BASIC ACT

Budget lines: 07 03 01 01, 07 03 01 02, 07 03 02, 07 03 03, 07 02 13, 14 02 01 50 and 15 02 01 02

Basic act: Regulation (EU) 2021/817 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2021 establishing the 'Erasmus+': the Union programme for education, training, youth and sport and repealing Regulation (EU) No 1288/2013

2. METHODS OF INTERVENTION

On the basis of the objectives given in the Erasmus+ Regulation, the 2022 Work Programme will be implemented through:

- Actions implemented through indirect management;
- Actions implemented through direct management:
 - Grants;
 - Procurements;
 - Experts;
 - Other actions.

a. ACTIONS IMPLEMENTED THROUGH INDIRECT MANAGEMENT AND GRANTS IMPLEMENTED UNDER DIRECT MANAGEMENT

To achieve the objectives and policy priorities announced in Part I of this Work Programme, general and specific calls for proposals will be published by the European Commission or by the Executive Agency in accordance with Article 189 (1) of the Financial Regulation (FR).

Each year, after adoption of the financing decision, based on Article 110 of the FR, a General Call for Proposals will be published. The General Call for Proposals for the implementation of the Erasmus+ Programme makes reference to a Programme Guide for the practical information. The Erasmus+ Programme Guide aims to assist all those interested in developing projects within the Programme. It helps them understand the objectives and the actions of the Programme. It also aims to give detailed information on what is needed in order to apply and what level of grant is offered. Finally, it informs about the grant selection procedure as well as the rules applying to successful applicants that become beneficiaries of an EU grant. The Programme Guide provides also detailed information as regards the award criteria for each call. The quality of the proposals will be assessed on the basis of the award criteria published per action in the guide, as elaborated upon in the call for proposals.

Actions will be implemented both in direct and indirect management.

All actions implemented through the National Agencies (marked as NA), are to be considered as indirect management. The Commission authorizes the recognition of the eligibility of costs incurred from 1 January 2022. This retroactivity aims to ensure programme implementation continuity.

Grants through direct management will be those awarded by EAC, EMPL or EACEA.

Some grants will also be awarded in direct management in accordance with indents (c), (d) and (f) of Article 195 of the FR. With reference to Pillar Assessed International Organisations, the Commission may entrust them budget implementation tasks via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode in accordance with Articles 62 (1)(c)(ii) and 156(1) of the FR.

The calls for proposals that will be launched with a view to selecting actions and work programmes to be co-financed in 2022, as well as the grants awarded under specific conditions without a call for proposals are specified further below in Part II of this Work Programme.

The majority of grants will be financed in the form of lump sums, reimbursement on the basis of unit costs and flat rate financing (simplified forms of grants). The use of these types of grants under Erasmus+ Programme has been approved by a “Decision authorising the use of lump sums and unit costs under the Erasmus+ Programme 2021 – 2027⁴⁶”. In accordance with this Decision, the methodology used to establish the simplified forms of grants and their levels ensures the respect of the principle of sound financing management and reasonable compliance with the principles of co-financing and no double funding.

For all grants the open access requirement of the Erasmus+ programme applies. Any research output must be made available online following open access publishing principles. Any educational resources or software produced or modified must be made available online on suitable platforms⁴⁷ and under fully open licenses which allow free use, sharing and modification. Justified exceptions are possible but must be requested and confirmed in writing.

For the beneficiaries of all grants awarded under Erasmus+, the following selection criteria will apply.

Organisations, institutions and groups applying for any grant under Erasmus+ as detailed further below in Part II of this Work Programme will be assessed against the following selection criteria:

- Applicants must have stable and sufficient sources of funding to maintain their activity throughout the period during which the action is being carried out and to participate in its funding. The verification of the financial capacity does not apply to public bodies and international organisations. According to Article 21 (3) of the Regulation, public bodies, as well as schools, higher education institutions and organisations in the fields of education, training, youth and sport that have received over 50% of their annual revenue from public sources over the last two years shall be considered as having the necessary financial, professional and administrative capacity to carry out activities under the Programme. They shall not be required to present further documentation to demonstrate that capacity.
- Applicants must have the professional competences and qualifications required to complete the proposed action.

b. PROCUREMENTS

This Work Programme also includes actions that will be implemented by public procurement procedures (via calls for tenders or the use of framework contracts) (Title VII FR).

⁴⁶ https://ec.europa.eu/info/funding-tenders/opportunities/docs/2021-2027/erasmus/guidance/ls-and-unit-cost-decision_erasmus_en.pdf

⁴⁷ Project results should be made available publicly on the Erasmus+ Project Results Platform

For actions implemented through framework contracts (FWC), in case existing FWC cannot be used, the Commission will consider publishing calls for tender to award new FWC.

c. CALLS FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST AND OTHER ACTIONS

This Work Programme includes costs related to the experts involved in the assessment of proposals and offers, in monitoring projects and in providing policy advice.

Accreditation processes are in place under certain actions in order to ensure the general quality framework for European and international cooperation activities. Holding an accreditation can be a pre-requisite to then be eligible to receive a grant for mobility projects under Key Action 1 or to participate in other actions of the Programme.

The Programme will also award prizes.

Furthermore, the Programme finances activities in cooperation with the Joint Research Centre (JRC) by means of specific administrative agreements. Wherever possible, preference will be given to relying on the expertise of the JRC to create a better knowledge base and to reinforcing the collection of evidence at EU level.

EDUCATION, TRAINING AND YOUTH

KEY ACTION 1

1. ACTIONS IMPLEMENTED UNDER INDIRECT MANAGEMENT

This section of the Work Programme describes the action managed in indirect management by the National Agencies (NA) of the Erasmus+ Programme under the budget lines education and training and youth.

a) Mobility projects

Index references in budget table (WPI): 1.01, 1.02, 1.03, 1.04, 1.05, 5.01

Projects under this action promote mobility activities targeting learners (pupils, students, trainees, apprentices, young people, adult learners), and staff (professors, teachers, trainers, youth workers, and people working in organisations active in the education, training and youth fields) and mainly aiming to support learners in the acquisition of competences (knowledge, skills and attitudes, including language competences) with a view to improving their personal, social,-educational and professional development, enhance employability, entrepreneurship and improve career prospects on the labour market, and social inclusion;

Organisations active in the fields of education, training and youth will receive support from the Erasmus+ Programme to carry out projects promoting different types of mobility. Mobility activities involve a minimum of two participating organisations (at least one sending and at least one receiving organisation) from different countries.

Mobility activities in the fields of higher education, VET and youth may also involve participating organisations from third countries not associated to the programme.

These opportunities, funded by the Erasmus+ budget (Heading 2), include outgoing mobilities towards third countries not associated to the programme. These opportunities are intended to encourage an organisation in an EU Member State or third country associated to the programme to develop outgoing mobility activities with several third countries not associated to the programme, and are expected to cover the widest possible geographic scope. Higher Education Institutions located in EU Member States and third countries associated to the programme have also the opportunity under the Erasmus+ call 2022, using funding made available from the EU external action instruments, to organise incoming and outgoing mobilities of students and staff from/to third countries not associated to the programme.

Depending on the profile of participants involved, the following types of mobility projects are supported under this action:

Mobility projects for higher education students and staff (funded by the Erasmus+ budget – MFF Heading 2)

The following activities are supported: student mobility for studies; student mobility for traineeships (including Digital Opportunity Traineeships); staff mobility for teaching; staff mobility for training (including Digital Opportunity Traineeships); blended intensive programmes.

Type of applicants targeted by this action: higher education institutions awarded with a higher education accreditation as well as other public or private organisations coordinating a consortium awarded with a higher education accreditation. Applicants must be established in an EU Member State or third country associated to the programme.

Mobility project for Higher education students and staff from/to third countries not associated to the programme (funded by the Erasmus+ budget – MFF Heading 6)

The following activities are supported: student mobility for studies; student mobility for traineeships; staff mobility for teaching; staff mobility for training.

Type of applicants targeted by this action: higher education institutions awarded with a higher education accreditation as well as other public or private organisations coordinating a consortium awarded with a higher education accreditation. Applicants must be established in an EU Member State or third country associated to the programme. Regions covered by this action are all regions covered by the external action instruments.

Mobility of learners and staff in vocational education and training

The following activities are supported:

- for VET learners and recent graduates: short-term and long-term (ErasmusPro) learning mobility (including Digital Opportunity Traineeships); participation in skills competitions; these activities will contribute to achieve the target of 8% for learners benefiting from a mobility experience abroad, as set in the Council Recommendation on VET as well as the deliverables of the Osnabrück Declaration, and in particular its Objective 4 on the international dimension of VET;
- for staff: job shadowing; teaching or training assignments; courses and training (including Digital Opportunity Traineeships); invited experts; hosting teachers and educators in training; preparatory visits.

Type of applicants targeted by this action: organisations providing initial or continuing vocational education and training; local and regional public authorities, coordination bodies and other organisations with a role in the field of vocational education and training; companies and other public or private organisations hosting, training or otherwise working with learners and apprentices in vocational education and training. Mobility of pupils and staff in school education

The following activities are supported:

e) Partnerships for Excellence: Centres of Vocational Excellence

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 2.12

Implementing VET excellence approaches features prominently in the overall EU policy for skills and VET put forward in the European Skills Agenda, the Council Recommendation on VET, as well as the Osnabrück Declaration. This strategy is firmly anchored in the European Green Deal, the new Digital Strategy, and the new Industrial and SME Strategies, as skills are key to their success. The initiative on Centres of Vocational Excellence (CoVEs) play an essential role in the implementation of VET excellence approaches.

The CoVE initiative supports a bottom-up approach to Vocational Excellence involving a wide range of local stakeholders. It enables VET institutions to rapidly adapt skills provision to evolving economic and social needs. This call will thus support projects bringing together local or regional partners from various countries developing a set of activities under three clusters; 1) Teaching and learning, 2) Cooperation and partnerships, and 3) Governance and Funding.

Centres of Vocational Excellence operate in a given local context, being the linchpin of skills ecosystems for innovation, regional development, and social inclusion, while working with CoVEs in other countries through international collaborative networks.

The networks aim for "upward convergence" of VET excellence. They will be open for the involvement of countries with well-developed vocational excellence systems, as well as those in the process of developing similar approaches, aimed at exploring the full potential of VET institutions to play a proactive role in support of growth and innovation.

Type of applicants targeted by this action: any public or private organisation active in the field of vocational education and training, or in the world of work. Applicants must be established in an EU Member State or third country associated to the programme.

Proposals submitted under Lot 2 must address one of these 3 priorities:

Priority 3: Supporting the Pact for Skills

These projects will aim to identify, test, develop or assess tools or structures focused on brokering and building cooperation between large companies and micro, small and medium companies (SMEs) along a value chain in the same industrial ecosystem⁵², with the involvement of other players relevant for up- and reskilling. The objective of this cooperation must be the upskilling and reskilling of people at working age in a particular value chain or industrial ecosystem. The projects can also serve the purpose of laying the ground for large-scale skills partnerships in industrial ecosystems.

Priority 4: Structures and mechanisms for Applied research in VET

These projects will aim to identify, assess, test, and develop structures and mechanisms for applied research in VET, to broaden its engagement in R&D and innovation systems. This engagement relies on building the capacity of VET systems, with the close involvement of teachers and trainers, as well as VET learners, to undertake applied research and manage innovation projects together with other organisations, and in particular SMEs. The results of these projects should have the potential to be mainstreamed, and contribute to the modernisation of VET systems and their engagement in applied research and experimental development, while providing learners with opportunities for challenge/project based learning.

⁵² As presented in the Annual Single Market Economy Report 2021 https://ec.europa.eu/info/files/staff-working-document-annual-single-market-report-2021_en

Priority 5: Green skills in the Vocational Education and Training sector

As stipulated in Action 6 of the European Skills Agenda, the Commission will support the acquisition of skills for the green transition. This transition requires professionals who build and master green technologies, including digital ones, develop green products, services and business models, create innovative nature-based solutions and help minimise the environmental footprint of activities. It also requires re- and upskilling of the workforce to accompany labour market transitions and mobility.

This priority will provide support for projects focusing on two interlinked aspects:

- Developing of a set of core green skills for the labour market to guide training across different economic sectors with a view to creating a generation of climate, environment and health conscious professionals and green economic operators, and
- Helping to integrate this set of core green skills into vocational education and training curricula, as well as into the training of teachers, trainers and other staff undertaking initial education and training as well as continuing professional development.

The indicative budget for Lot 2 is EUR 13 800 000.

Lot 3: Adult education

Proposals submitted under Lot 3 must address priority 6:

Priority 6: Upskilling Pathways: New Opportunities for Adults

Upskilling Pathways as defined in the Council Recommendation on Upskilling Pathways: New Opportunities for Adults⁵³ targets adults with a low level of skills, knowledge and competences who have at best completed lower secondary education. It aims to provide them with flexible opportunities to improve their literacy, numeracy and digital skills (including ability to use digital technologies) and to progress towards higher qualification levels relevant for the labour market and for active participation in society. This priority should also contribute to action 8 ‘Skills for life’ of the European Skills Agenda⁵⁴.

Projects should include activities related to the three upskilling pathways steps:

- skills assessment;
- provision of a tailored, flexible and quality learning offer;
- validation and recognition of skills acquired.

They should also include support activities such as guidance and outreach.

The indicative budget for Lot 3 is EUR 5 000 000.

In 2022, the cooperation between the two organisations will include activities covering the following main areas:

- International studies and assessment tools

Both the OECD and the European Commission carry out international studies, secondary analysis, country reviews and other assessment tools in the field of education and training. In most cases both sides can get best results through joint actions, thus avoiding overlapping or duplicated work. - Language assessment in PISA 2025

The European Commission will continue work with OECD to prepare a voluntary assessment of foreign language skills in 2025. The full scale roll-out of the international test was originally planned for 2024 but the planning has been adapted due to COVID 19-related delays. A small scale pilot project including listening and reading skills will be carried out in a PISA environment in 2022. It will build on a series of consecutive joint development projects combining the testing expertise of the PISA department with the expertise in the Common European Framework of Reference for language competences of the Council of Europe. Building on the results of the pilot, the 2022 action will go towards the development of the international version of the language test prior to the national data collections in participating countries. The maximum EU contribution will indicatively be EUR 250 000.

- Digital transformation in education

In order to support the evidence base on the digital transformation in education and training, a cooperation with OECD will provide analytical support and research-based evidence on key themes and enabling factors in digital education. The cooperation will be cross-sectoral and include OECD work conducted under the Group of National Experts in Higher Education (GNE-HE) and the Group of National Experts in School Resources (GNE-SR). The OECD will provide data and evidence from EU and beyond in order to establish a well-informed overview of best practice in the development of digital education and training. The maximum EU contribution will indicatively be EUR 750 000.

- Micro-credentials

In order to support the European Commission initiative on the European approach to micro-credentials, the cooperation with OECD will enable policy makers and stakeholders in higher education and vocational education and training to get a clear picture of the possible implementation of micro-credentials. Building upon its recent and ongoing analysis, the OECD will focus on the changes at Member States level, as well as on cooperation of higher education and vocational education and training institutions as well as private providers in the field of micro-credentials. The maximum EU contribution will indicatively be EUR 150 000 for HE and EUR 100 000 for VET.

- Comparative study for the 2022 PISA results in the Eastern Partnership countries

A regional comparative study on the PISA 2022 results for participating Eastern partnership countries will summarise and compare the PISA 2022 results by field of study, identify common weaknesses and propose measures to tackle them. OECD will prepare a policy paper containing key messages, recommendations and concise analysis to improve the countries' performance in the next PISA. The maximum EU contribution will indicatively be EUR 100 000.

The budget implementation tasks will be entrusted to the OECD via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode in accordance with Articles 62 (1)(c), 110 (3)(f), 154 and 156(1) of the FR.

The Commission authorizes the recognition of the eligibility of costs incurred from 1 January 2022. This retroactivity aims to ensure programme implementation continuity.

h) Cooperation with UNESCO

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 3.06

In order to promote European values, combat all forms of discrimination and intolerance, and strengthen young people’s resilience to antisemitic ideas and conspiracy theories, the programme will enhance cooperation with international organisations. UNESCO and the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR) jointly published the policy guide ‘Addressing Anti-Semitism through Education: Guidelines for Policymakers’ in 2018 and have trained over 100 high-level officials of ministries of education from over 60 countries. Building on this experience, UNESCO and ODIHR have developed a training module for teachers and schools directors addressing antisemitism and teaching about the Holocaust in schools. The objective of the action is to support the dissemination and delivery of the trainings in 20 EU Member States, and to foster skills and knowledge on the long-term. In addition, UNESCO is developing a guidance for educators on Holocaust distortion on social media and the creation of a digital learning tool for students. UNESCO’s experience in this field is directly relevant for the implementation of the EU Strategy on combatting antisemitism and fostering Jewish life, adopted on 6 October 2021. The international organisation is best equipped to support EU Member States and their civil societies to develop effective and sustainable preventive measures through education. This initiative will also contribute to increasing knowledge and analytical capacity to support evidence-based policies in the fields of education and training, and support a higher degree of exchanges of good practices, dialogue, mutual learning and cooperation among policy makers and practitioners from EU Member States.

The maximum EU contribution will indicatively be EUR 1 000 000 and covers a 2-year implementation period.

The budget implementation tasks will be entrusted to UNESCO via the conclusion of Contribution Agreements under indirect management mode in accordance with Articles 62 (1)(c), 110 (3)(f), 154 and 156(1) of the FR.

4. GRANTS AWARDED BY MEANS OF CALLS FOR PROPOSALS

a) European policy network in the field of education of children and young people with a migrant background

Index references in budget table (WPI): 3.31

The call aims at supporting one European policy network to raise awareness, analyse and develop policy approaches, and promote good practices and innovative initiatives in the field of education of children and young people with a migrant background.

The overall objective of this call is to support an EU-wide network of relevant organisations (policymakers, practitioners, researchers and stakeholders, including with migrant background) to promote co-operation, policy development and implementation at different governance levels and support the integration of children and young people with migration background in school education.

The network builds on existing work developed at European level, especially initiatives and projects supported by the European Union's education programmes.

To achieve this, a call for proposals will be launched aiming at concluding one Framework Partnership Agreement, covering a maximum duration of 4 years. Within the scope of the Framework Partnership Agreements (FPA), specific grant agreements will be concluded, based on a commonly agreed work plan and related budget.

Applicants should be legal entities (associations, foundations and other similar national or international bodies; national education centres; higher education institutions and research centres) established in one of the EU Member States and third countries associated to the

e) European policy experimentation in higher education

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 3.39

European policy experimentations are transnational cooperation projects that involve testing the relevance, effectiveness, potential impact and scalability of activities through field trials in different countries. By combining strategic leadership, methodological soundness and a strong European dimension, they enable mutual learning and support evidence-based policy at European level.

There appears to be a need for a legal statute for alliances of higher education institutions allowing them to access, share and pool joint resources - such as financial, human, digital and physical resources, and services. The Commission has requested a study on the matter. The lack of such a statute precludes the capacity of higher education institutions to reach a deeper level of cooperation and their competitiveness. There is also a need to explore the feasibility of a joint European degree that will recognise the value of transnational experiences in the higher education qualification the students obtain, and remove red tape for the delivery of joint programmes.

The priority for this European policy experimentation is to support higher education institutions to pilot a possible legal statute at European level for alliances of higher education institutions - such as the European Universities, but also beyond - for example through a European Grouping of Territorial Cooperation (EGTC) and/or to pilot a European degree label for joint transnational programmes responding to a number of criteria. The Commission has requested a study on the matter, but expects that a legal statute can help alliances of universities to achieve their ambition of making truly common strategic decisions, act together with a legal personality, and facilitate pooling together resources and activities. Where appropriate, national authorities in charge of the EGTC Regulation could benefit from this support as well, to improve the functioning of the EGTC Regulation on their territory when it comes to higher education cooperation.

If developed, the European degree label, issued – by a consortia of higher education institutions such as European Universities alliances, Erasmus Mundus or MSCA⁵⁶ consortia – as a complementary certificate for the qualification of the student, would recognise the value of transnational experiences in the higher education qualifications the students obtain, and remove red tape for the delivery of joint programmes. Overcoming legal and administrative challenges for joint degrees appears to be a necessary condition to build trust between Member States and higher education institutions supporting ambitious and deeper transnational cooperation, and constituting a stepping stone within a progressive approach towards the potential establishment of a joint European degree qualification covering all levels (Bachelor, Master, Doctorate and lifelong learning opportunities). Member States are invited to reflect on how an eventual European Degree could feature in national qualification frameworks. Where appropriate, national authorities in charge of national qualifications frameworks could benefit from this support as well.

It is expected that the results of the pilot actions will be shared with the relevant public authorities, allowing for exchange of best practices and transferring knowledge.

Targeted participating organisations (applicants) are higher education institutions holding a valid Erasmus Charter for Higher Education (ECHE) and entities affiliated to them, as well as public or private organisations active in the fields of education and training or in other fields relevant to this policy experimentation. Applicants must be established in an EU Member State or in a third country associated to the programme.

A project proposal can only be coordinated and submitted, on behalf of all applicants, by a higher education institutions holding a valid Erasmus Charter for Higher Education (ECHE). The minimum partnership composition requirement for this call is 2 higher education institutions holding a valid Erasmus Charter for Higher Education (ECHE) representing different EU Member States and/or third countries associated to the programme.

d) Exchanges of experience and good practice, and peer counselling (partially co-delegated to DG EMPL)

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 3.44, 3.45, 5.50

Exchanges of experience and good practice are an integral part of the European Education Area toolbox to implement the European priorities in education and training of the European Education Area and beyond (2021-2030). They take place in the context of peer learning and peer counselling activities, usually part of EEA Working Groups, which enable Member States sharing similar policy challenges to work in clusters. Peer counselling is a tailor-made, very concrete and country-specific exercise to help a Member State with a particular reform effort by bringing together experts from other Member States who have successfully dealt with similar issues. Peer reviews in the context of Directors-General meetings, focusing on country specific challenges and implementation of Council Recommendations (such as the Council Recommendation on vocational education and training for sustainable competitiveness, social fairness and resilience), support Member States' efforts to improve their education and training systems. The dissemination of good practices and lessons learned, using international evidence when relevant, can be enhanced through thematic events, policy learning exchanges, support to Communities of Practice, and any arrangement for knowledge transfer and exchange on what works in education.

In the field of youth, the programme will fund mutual learning activities under the EU Youth Strategy. These could include expert groups, peer-learning and peer-counselling activities.

a) Presidency events

Index references in budget table (WPI): 6.10

Grants will be awarded to the governments of France, Czech Republic and Sweden (or bodies designated by them) to organise during their respective Presidencies of the Council of the EU or in preparation thereof of conferences, seminars, meetings of directors-generals on priority policy topics, together with associated activities for the exploitation of project and Programme results. The main outcomes expected from Presidency events are policy guidance, orientations, conclusions and messages which will serve as inputs to promote European policy approaches, to inform Presidency policy proposals, to improve the cooperation between the EU and the Member States and to prepare future policy initiatives in the field of sport.

The Presidency is considered as a de jure monopoly because it plays a unique role to foster policy cooperation, define priorities and follow-up the progress and results achieved in the field of sport (Article 195 (c) FR).

Implementation	Indicative amount (EUR)
EAC	500 000

b) Cooperation between Member States

Index references in budget table (WPI): 6.11

Grants will be awarded to Member States, wishing to organise peer learning activities in the framework of the implementation of the EU Work Plan for Sport. Such a peer learning activity should include no less than seven Member States.

These are actions with specific characteristics that require a particular type of body on account of its technical competence, its high degree of specialisation or its administrative power. Member States are considered to be the only bodies technically competent to carry out these actions (Article 195 (f) FR).

Implementation	Indicative amount (EUR)
EAC	300 000

c) Dialogue with stakeholders - National activities

Index reference in budget table (WPI): 6.12

Within the framework of the European Week of Sport, national, regional and local activities will be coordinated by National Coordinating Bodies (Ministries or appointed organisations), which are in a position of de jure or de facto monopoly within the meaning of Article 195 (c) FR. EU Member States and third countries associated to the programme will be asked to appoint (or renew the mandate of) their national coordinator, which should serve as a contact for the European Commission and grants decisions/agreements will be signed with the National Coordinating Bodies.

The financial support will mainly cover the organisation of national activities, including costs linked to the preparation, the organisation and the follow-up to the activities. Typically, a national activity may cover:

- awareness-raising and communication activities on the value of sport and physical activity in relation to the personal, social and professional development of individuals;
- activities to promote synergies between the field of sport and the fields of health, education, training and youth conferences, seminars, meetings, and events;
- support to the organisation of an EU-wide (symbolic) simultaneous activity in the capitals of all participating countries.

The grant will also aim at co-financing the costs linked to the national coordination of activities organised by others (sport clubs, federations and associations), national communication about the European Week of Sport and support activities. In all the activities cooperation with Eastern Partnership and Western Balkans regions should be encouraged.

The grant is subject to approval of an action plan and an estimated budget. Each national coordination body can receive financial support of EUR 160 000.

EACEA	10 240 000

3. PROCUREMENTS

a) Evidence-based activities

Index references in budget table (WPI): 6.20

Good knowledge, information and evidence on social, economic and governance-related aspects of sport and physical activity are a prerequisite for effective policy making in these fields at the EU level and in Member States. EU added value can be achieved by encouraging data collection and evidence reinforcement, spreading good practices from EU Member States or third countries associated to the programme and sport organisations and by reinforcing networks at EU level. The EU can provide both opportunities for cooperation among stakeholders and synergy with, and between, national, regional and local policies to promote sport-related challenges. The following activities can be covered:

- studies and support services to networks;
- support for surveys and data gathering, aiming at strengthening the evidence base for policy making.

Studies would allow covering, for instance, the continuation of the works on Sport satellite accounts and sport statistics, sport and innovation, health-enhancing physical activity. Networks, for instance in the field of sport economics, could also be launched.

Implementation	Indicative amount (EUR)
EAC	1 000 000

b) Conferences, Seminars and Communication activities

Index references in budget table (WPI): 6.21

One of the main activities foreseen for the dialogue with stakeholders is the annual EU Sport Forum. This event is gathering in particular representatives from, public authorities, key sport organisations and EU institutions. In 2022, to further support the European Year of Youth, new ideas will be formulated through a HealthyLifeStyle4All Ideas Lab. Other ad-hoc meetings, seminars, conferences and communication activities, including those related to awards, to the development of the European Week of Sport and to the promotion of grassroots sport relevant to ensure optimal dialogue with sport stakeholders and getting their views may also be envisaged.

Implementation	Indicative amount (EUR)
EAC	2 500 000

c) Meetings with grant-holders and other stakeholders

Index references in budget table (WPI): 6.22

The costs related to grant-holders and other meetings for supporting Programme implementation are included in the Work Programme. This action will support Sport Info Day, kick-off events and other meetings in order to promote the Programme.

Implementation	Indicative amount (EUR)

2. DISTRIBUTION OF AVAILABLE APPROPRIATIONS BY ACTIONS AND FIELDS – BUDGET AND PROGRAMMING TABLES

The budget and programming tables below shows the distribution of available appropriations among the Key Actions and actions funded by budget lines 07 03 01 01, 07 03 01 02, 07 03 02, 07 03 03, 07 02 13, 14 02 01 50 and 15 02 01 02 taking into account the amounts adopted in the EU-Budget, the financial contributions from EFTA/EEA and from other countries for their participation in the Programme, as well as a forecast of internal assigned revenues from recoveries.

The overall allocation of funds to the actions of the Programme is established by the provisions of Article 17 of the Regulation, which establishes allocations per policy field and other expenditure covered by the Programme. The percentages in the Regulation are set and should be respected for the entire programming period 2021-2027. These shares have therefore governed the allocation of funds at the annual level for the year 2022.

The thresholds of budget allocation under Erasmus+ are as follows:

		Erasmus+ 2021-2027
		% of total budget	% of E&T budget
a. Education and Training		83%
	1) Higher education		Min. 34.6%
	2) Vocational Education and Training		Min. 21.5%
	3) School education		Min. 15.2%
	4) Adult education		Min. 5.8%
	5) Jean Monnet		Min. 1.8%
	Horizontal activities		Min. 17%
	Flexibility margin		4.1%
b. Youth		10.3%
c. Sport		1.9%
d. Operational costs of National Agencies		Min. 3.3%
e. Programme support		1.5%

It should be noted, however, that in line with the Regulation, these percentages of the total budget are fixed for the entire programming period 2021 – 2027. Therefore, for a given year of implementation of the Programme, they do not need to be respected in full (i.e. because of reprogramming or change in political priorities), while the trend will have to be respected for the overall duration of the Programme.

3. BREAKDOWN BY COUNTRY OF THE HEADING 2 FUNDS ALLOCATED TO THE NATIONAL AGENCIES

Standard criteria

In application of the Regulation, the 4 criteria used for the allocation of funds for grant support indirectly managed by the National Agencies are the following:

- a) Country Population;
- b) Cost of Living;
- c) Distance between capitals;
- d) Performance.

The relative weight of the criteria is calculated as follows:

Education and Training:

Minimum allocation of 10% of the budget for each action is applied. The criteria a) to c) account for the allocation of 80% of funds. The criterion of past performance d) accounts for the remaining 10%.

Youth:

Minimum allocation of 20% of the budget for each action is applied. The criteria a) to c) account for the allocation of 70% of funds. The criterion of past performance d) accounts for the remaining 10%.

- In order to guarantee that there are no excessive imbalances in the annual budget allocated to countries from one year to another, a correction mechanism is applied to the allocations resulting from the pure application of the above-mentioned criteria. In addition, for Key Action 2, minima allocations are applied: For Cooperation Partnerships: minimum of EUR 400 000 for each country;
- For Small-scale Partnerships: minimum of EUR 120 000 for each country.

For those countries associated to the Programme and identified in Article 19.1 (b) of the Erasmus+ Programme Regulation, the allocation of funds is calculated on the basis of the financial contribution paid by the countries, coupled with a correction mechanism. The correction mechanism aims to avoid substantial reductions in the annual budget allocated from one year to the next and to minimise excessive imbalances in the level of funds allocated.
